The costs incurred in carrying out the audit shall be borne by the importing Party.
7. If the importing Party maintains a list of authorised establishments for the import of animal products, the exporting Party shall provide the importing Party with satisfactory sanitary guarantees that the establishments meet the relevant requirements of the importing Party, and draw up and make available to the importing Party the lists of approved establishments.

Consultations shall take place in the Joint Committee, unless the Parties making and receiving the request for consultations agree otherwise.

ARTICLE 2.15

Anti-dumping

1. No Party shall apply anti-dumping measures as provided for under Article VI of the GATT 1994 and the WTO Agreement on Implementation of Article VI of the GATT 1994 in relation to goods originating in another Party.
2. Five years from the date of entry into force of this Agreement, the Parties may in the Joint Committee review the operation of paragraph 1. Thereafter the Parties may conduct biennial reviews of this matter in the Joint Committee.

ARTICLE 2.16

Global Safeguard Measures

1. The rights and obligations of the Parties with respect to global safeguards shall be governed by Article XIX of the GATT 1994 and the WTO Agreement on Safeguards. In taking measures under these WTO provisions, a Party shall, consistent with its obligations under the WTO Agreements, exclude imports of an originating product from one or several Parties if such imports do not in and of themselves cause or threaten to cause serious injury.
2. A Party intending to adopt definitive global safeguard measures against one or several Parties shall inform them and offer consultations. It shall allow for a 45-day period from the date of the offer to hold consultations before adopting any definitive global safeguard measures.

3. A Party adopting global safeguard measures shall impose them in a way that least affects bilateral trade.

ARTICLE 2.17

Bilateral Safeguard Measures

1. Where, as a result of the reduction or elimination of a customs duty under this Agreement, any product originating in a Party is imported into the territory of another Party in such increased quantities, in absolute terms or relative to domestic production, and under such conditions as to constitute a substantial cause of serious injury or threat thereof to the domestic industry of like or directly competitive products in the territory of the importing Party, the importing Party may take bilateral safeguard measures to the minimum extent necessary to remedy or prevent the injury, subject to paragraphs 2 to 10.

2. Bilateral safeguard measures shall only be taken upon clear evidence that increased imports have caused or are threatening to cause serious injury pursuant to an investigation in accordance with the procedures laid down in the WTO Agreement on Safeguards.

3. The Party intending to take a bilateral safeguard measure pursuant to this Article shall immediately, and in any case before taking a measure, notify the other Parties. The notification shall contain all pertinent information, including evidence of serious injury or threat thereof caused by increased imports, a precise description of the product concerned, and the proposed measure, as well as the proposed date of introduction, expected duration and timetable for the progressive removal of the measure. A Party that may be affected by the bilateral safeguard measure shall be offered compensation in the form of substantially equivalent trade liberalisation in relation to the imports from any such Party.

4. If the conditions set out in paragraph 1 are met, the importing Party may take measures consisting in increasing the rate of customs duty for the product to a level not to exceed the lesser of:

- (a) the MFN rate of duty applied at the time the bilateral safeguard measure is taken; or
- (b) the MFN rate of duty applied on the day immediately preceding the date of the entry into force of this Agreement.

5. Bilateral safeguard measures shall be taken for a period not exceeding one year. In very exceptional circumstances, after review by the Joint Committee, measures may be taken up to a total maximum period of three years. No bilateral safeguard measures shall be applied to the import of a product, which has previously been subject to such a measure.

6. The Joint Committee shall, within 30 days from the receipt of the notification, examine the information provided under paragraph 3 in order to facilitate a mutually acceptable solution. In the absence of such solution, the importing Party may adopt a bilateral safeguard measure pursuant to paragraph 4 to remedy the problem, and, in the absence of mutually agreed compensation, the Party against whose product the bilateral safeguard measure is taken may take compensatory action. The bilateral safeguard measure and the compensatory action shall be immediately notified to the other Parties. In the selection of the bilateral safeguard measure and the compensatory action, priority must be given to the action or measure which least disturbs the functioning of this Agreement. The Party taking compensatory action shall apply the action only for the minimum period necessary to achieve the substantially equivalent trade effects and in any event, only while the bilateral safeguard measure under paragraph 4 is being applied.

7. Upon the termination of the bilateral safeguard measure, the rate of customs duty shall be the rate which would have been in effect but for the measure.

8. In critical circumstances, where delay would cause damage which would be difficult to repair, a Party may take a provisional bilateral safeguard measure pursuant to a preliminary determination that there is clear evidence that increased imports constitute a substantial cause of serious injury, or threat thereof, to the domestic industry. The Party intending to take such a measure shall immediately notify the other Parties thereof. Within 30 days from the receipt of the notification, the procedures set out in paragraphs 2 to 6, including for compensatory action, shall be initiated. Any compensation shall be based on the total period of application of the provisional bilateral safeguard measure and of the bilateral safeguard measure.

9. Any provisional bilateral safeguard measure shall be terminated within 200 days at the latest. The period of application of any such provisional bilateral safeguard measure shall be counted as part of the duration, and any extension thereof, of the bilateral safeguard measure, set out in paragraphs 4 and 5 respectively. Any tariff increases shall be promptly refunded if the investigation described in paragraph 2 does not result in a finding that the conditions of paragraph 1 are met.

10. Five years from the date of entry into force of this Agreement, the Parties shall review whether there is a need to maintain the possibility to take safeguard measures between them. Following the review, the Parties may decide whether they want to apply this Article any longer. If the Parties decide after the first review to maintain this possibility, biennial reviews shall thereafter be conducted by the Joint Committee.

2. A Party introducing a measure under this Article shall promptly notify the Joint Committee.

ARTICLE 2.23

Preference Utilisation

1. For the purpose of monitoring the functioning of this Agreement and calculating preference utilisation rates, the Parties shall annually exchange import statistics and preferential tariff rates under this Agreement as well as applied most-favoured-nation (MFN) tariff rates.
2. Import statistics exchanged shall pertain to the three most recent years available and comprise all imports from the Party concerned, including trade values and volumes listed at the level of national subheadings. The Parties shall exchange separate statistics for imports benefitting from preferential treatment under this Agreement, for imports benefitting from other preferential treatment than under this Agreement as well as those that did not receive preferential treatment (MFN treatment). The preferential tariff rates and applied MFN tariff rates exchanged shall pertain to the same year as the import statistics. Upon request, the Parties shall exchange additional information and explanations in English.

3. The exchange of import statistics, preferential tariff rates and applied MFN tariff rates shall start one year after the entry into force of this Agreement.

4. Notwithstanding paragraph 2, no Party shall be obliged to exchange data that is confidential in accordance with its domestic laws and regulations.

2. Treatment granted under other existing or future agreements concluded by a Party and notified under Article V or Article Vbis of the GATS shall not be subject to paragraph 1.

3. If a Party concludes or amends an agreement notified under Article V or Article Vbis of the GATS, it shall, upon the request from another Party, afford adequate opportunity to that Party to negotiate the benefits granted therein.

Domestic Regulation

1. Each Party shall ensure that all measures of general application affecting trade in services are administered in a reasonable, objective and impartial manner.
2. Each Party shall maintain or institute, as soon as practicable, judicial, arbitral or administrative tribunals or procedures which provide, at the request of an affected service supplier of another Party, for the prompt review of, and where justified, appropriate remedies for, administrative decisions affecting trade in services. Where such procedures are not independent of the agency entrusted with the administrative decision concerned, the Party shall ensure that the procedures in fact provide for an objective and impartial review.
3. Where authorisation is required by a Party for the supply of a service, the competent authorities of that Party shall, within a reasonable period of time after the submission of an application is considered complete under that Party's domestic laws and regulations, inform the applicant of the decision concerning the application. At the request of the applicant, the competent authorities of that Party shall provide, without undue delay, information concerning the status of the application.
4. Each Party shall ensure that measures relating to qualification requirements and procedures, technical standards and licensing requirements and procedures, in all services sectors, are based on objective and transparent criteria, such as competence and the ability to supply the service.

5. With a view to ensuring that measures relating to qualification requirements and procedures, technical standards and licensing requirements and procedures do not constitute unnecessary barriers to trade in services, the Joint Committee shall take a decision aiming at incorporating into the Agreement any disciplines developed in the WTO in accordance with paragraph 4 of Article VI of the GATS. The Parties may also, jointly or bilaterally, decide to develop further disciplines.

6. In sectors in which a Party has undertaken specific commitments, pending the entry into force of a decision incorporating WTO disciplines for these sectors pursuant to paragraph 5, and, if agreed between Parties, disciplines developed jointly or bilaterally under this Agreement pursuant to paragraph 5, the Party shall not apply qualification requirements and procedures, technical standards and licensing requirements and procedures that nullify or impair such specific commitments in a manner which is:

- (a) more burdensome than necessary to ensure the quality of the service; or
- (b) in the case of licensing procedures, in itself a restriction on the supply of the service.

7. In determining whether a Party is in conformity with the obligation under paragraph 6, account shall be taken of international standards of relevant international organisations³ applied by that Party.

8. Each Party shall provide for adequate procedures to verify the competence of professionals of any other Party.

ARTICLE 3.9

Recognition

1. For the purposes of the fulfilment of its relevant standards or criteria for the authorisation, licensing or certification of service suppliers, each Party shall give due consideration to any requests by another Party to recognise the education or experience obtained, requirements met, or licences or certifications granted in that other Party. Such recognition may be based upon an agreement or arrangement with that other Party, or otherwise be accorded autonomously.

2. Where a Party recognises, by agreement or arrangement, the education or experience obtained, requirements met, or licences or certifications granted, in the territory of a non-party, that Party shall afford another Party adequate opportunity to negotiate its accession to such an agreement or arrangement, whether existing or future, or to negotiate a comparable agreement or arrangement with it. Where a Party accords recognition autonomously, it shall afford adequate opportunity for another Party to demonstrate that the education or experience obtained, requirements met, or licences or certifications granted, in the territory of that other Party should also be recognised.

³ “relevant international organisations” means international bodies whose membership is open to the relevant bodies of at least all Parties.

3. Any such agreement or arrangement or autonomous recognition shall be in conformity with the relevant provisions of the WTO Agreement, in particular paragraph 3 of Article VII of the GATS.

3. Natural persons covered by a specific commitment shall be allowed to supply the service in accordance with the terms of that commitment.

4. This Chapter shall not prevent a Party from applying measures to regulate the entry of natural persons of another Party into, or their temporary stay in, its territory, including those measures necessary to protect the integrity of, and to ensure the orderly movement of natural persons across its borders, provided that such measures are not applied in such a manner as to nullify or impair the benefits accruing to any Party under the terms of a specific commitment.⁴

Transparency

Paragraphs 1 and 2 of Article III and Article III*bis* of the GATS apply to this Chapter and are hereby incorporated into and made part of this Agreement, mutatis mutandis.

4. Compensation and suspension of benefits shall be temporary measures and shall only be applied by the complaining Party until the measure found to be inconsistent with this Agreement has been withdrawn or amended so as to bring it into conformity with this Agreement, or until the parties to the dispute have resolved the dispute otherwise.

5. Upon request of a party to the dispute, the original arbitration panel shall rule on the conformity with the final report of any implementing measures adopted after the suspension of benefits and, in light of such ruling, whether the suspension of benefits should be terminated or modified. 1. If a Party notifies the Depositary of the Convention in writing of its intention to withdraw from the Convention according to Article 9 thereof, the Parties shall immediately enter into negotiations on rules of origin for the purpose of implementing the Agreement.

2. Until the entry into force of such newly negotiated rules of origin, the rules of origin contained in Appendix I and, where appropriate, the relevant provisions of Appendix II to the Convention, applicable at the moment of withdrawal, shall continue to apply and the alternative rules may continue to apply to the Agreement. However, as of the moment of withdrawal, the rules of origin contained in Appendix I and, where appropriate, the relevant provisions of Appendix II to the Convention and in the alternative rules shall be construed so as to allow bilateral cumulation only between the withdrawing Party and the other Parties.

ARTICLE 7

Electronically Issued Movement Certificates EUR.1

1. As an alternative to the provisions regarding the issuance of movement certificates, the Parties shall accept electronically issued movement certificates EUR.1. Considering the digitalised system to issue movement certificates EUR.1, the formal requirements of electronically issued movement certificates EUR.1 are stated in paragraph 3. The customs authorities of the exporting and the importing Party may agree on other formal requirements of electronically issued movement certificates EUR.1.
2. Each exporting Party shall inform the EFTA Secretariat about the readiness of the issuance of electronic movement certificates EUR.1 and all technical issues related to such implementation (issuance, submission and verification of an electronic certificate).
3. If agreed by the customs authorities of the exporting and importing Parties, paragraphs 1 and 2 of Annex IIIa to the Convention shall not apply if the movement certificate is issued and validated electronically, and the following applies:

 - (e) it may be issued in any of the official languages of the Parties or in English.

ARTICLE 8

OBJECTIVES

These Rules are optional. They are intended to apply on a provisional basis, pending the conclusion and entry into force of the amendment of the Regional Convention on pan-Euro-Mediterranean preferential rules of origin ('PEM Convention'). These Rules will apply bilaterally to trade between those Contracting Parties that agree to refer to them or include them in their bilateral preferential trade agreements. These Rules are intended to apply as an alternative to the rules of the PEM Convention, which, as provided by the PEM Convention, are without prejudice to the principles laid down in the relevant agreements and other related bilateral agreements among Contracting Parties. Accordingly, these Rules will not be mandatory, but optional. They may be applied by economic operators that desire to claim preferences based on these Rules instead of on the basis of the rules of the PEM Convention.

These Rules are not intended to modify the PEM Convention. The PEM Convention continues to apply in full between the Contracting Parties to the PEM Convention. These Rules will not alter the rights and obligations of the Contracting Parties under the PEM Convention.

TITLE I

GENERAL PROVISIONS

ARTICLE 1

Definitions

For the purposes of these Rules:

- (a) 'applying Contracting Party' means a Contracting Party to the PEM Convention that incorporates these Rules in its bilateral preferential trade agreements with another Contracting Party to the PEM Convention and includes the Parties to this Agreement;
- (b) 'chapters', 'headings' and 'subheadings' mean the chapters, the headings and the subheadings (four- or six-digit codes) used in the nomenclature which makes up the Harmonized Commodity Description and Coding System ('Harmonized System') with the changes pursuant to the Recommendation of 26 June 2004 of the Customs Cooperation Council;
- (c) 'classified' means the classification of a good under a particular heading or subheading of the Harmonised System;
- (d) 'consignment' means products which are either:
 - (i) sent simultaneously from one exporter to one consignee; or
 - (ii) covered by a single transport document covering their shipment from the exporter to the consignee or, in the absence of such a document, by a single invoice;
- (e) 'customs authorities of the Party or applying Contracting Party' for the European Union means any of the customs authorities of the Member States of the European Union;
- (f) 'customs value' means the value as determined in accordance with the Agreement on implementation of Article VII of the General Agreement on Tariffs and Trade 1994 (WTO Agreement on Customs Valuation);
- (g) 'ex-works price' means the price paid for the product ex works to the manufacturer in the Party in whose undertaking the last working or processing is carried out, provided that the price includes the value of all the materials used and all other costs related to its production, minus any internal taxes which are, or may be, repaid when the product obtained is exported. Where the last working or processing has been subcontracted to a manufacturer, the term 'manufacturer' refers to the enterprise that has employed the subcontractor.

Where the actual price paid does not reflect all costs related to the manufacturing of the product which are actually incurred in the Party, the ex-works price means the sum of all those costs, minus any internal taxes which are, or may be, repaid when the product obtained is exported;

- (h) 'fungible material' or 'fungible product' means material or product that is of the same kind and commercial quality, with the same technical and physical characteristics, and which cannot be distinguished from one another;
- (i) 'goods' means both material and product;
- (j) 'manufacture' means any kind of working or processing, including assembly;
- (k) 'material' means any ingredient, raw material, component or part, etc., used in the manufacture of the product;
- (l) 'maximum content of non-originating materials' means the maximum content of non-originating materials which is permitted in order to consider a manufacture to be working or processing sufficient to confer originating status on the product. It may be expressed as a percentage of the ex-works price of the product or as a percentage of the net weight of these materials used falling under a specified group of chapters, chapter, heading or subheading;
- (m) 'product' means the product being manufactured, even if it is intended for later use in another manufacturing operation;
- (n) 'territory' includes the land territory, internal waters and the territorial sea of a Party;
- (o) 'value added' shall be taken to be the ex-works price of the product minus the customs value of each of the materials incorporated which originate in the other applying Contracting Parties with which cumulation is applicable or, where the customs value is not known or cannot be ascertained, the first ascertainable price paid for the materials in the exporting Party;
- (p) 'value of materials' means the customs value at the time of importation of the non-originating materials used, or, if this is not known and cannot be ascertained, the first ascertainable price paid for the materials in the exporting Party. Where the value of the originating materials used needs to be established, this point shall be applied mutatis mutandis.

TITLE II

DEFINITION OF THE CONCEPT OF 'ORIGINATING PRODUCTS'

ARTICLE 2

General requirements

For the purpose of implementing the Agreement, the following products shall be considered as originating in a Party when exported to another Party:

- (a) products wholly obtained in a Party, within the meaning of Article 3;
- (b) products obtained in a Party incorporating materials which have not been wholly obtained there, provided that such materials have undergone sufficient working or processing in that Party within the meaning of Article 4.

ARTICLE 3

Wholly obtained products

1. The following shall be considered as wholly obtained in a Party when exported to another Party:

- (a) mineral products and natural water extracted from its soil or from its seabed;
- (b) plants, including aquatic plants, and vegetable products grown or harvested there;
- (c) live animals born and raised there;
- (d) products from live animals raised there;
- (e) products from slaughtered animals born and raised there;
- (f) products obtained by hunting or fishing conducted there;
- (g) products of aquaculture where the fish, crustaceans, molluscs and other aquatic invertebrates are born or raised there from eggs, larvae, fry or fingerlings;
- (h) products of sea fishing and other products taken from the sea outside any territorial sea by its vessels;
- (i) products made on board its factory ships exclusively from products referred to in point (h);
- (j) used articles collected there fit only for the recovery of raw materials;

- (k) waste and scrap resulting from manufacturing operations conducted there;
- (l) products extracted from the seabed or below the seabed which is situated outside its territorial sea but where it has exclusive exploitation rights;
- (m) goods produced there exclusively from the products specified in points (a) to (l).

2. The terms 'its vessels' and 'its factory ships' in points (h) and (i) of paragraph 1 respectively shall apply only to vessels and factory ships which meet each of the following requirements:

- (a) they are registered in the exporting or the importing Party;
- (b) they sail under the flag of the exporting or the importing Party;
- (c) they meet one of the following conditions:
 - (i) they are at least 50 % owned by nationals of the exporting or the importing Party; or
 - (ii) they are owned by companies which:
 - have their head office and their main place of business in the exporting or the importing Party; and
 - are at least 50 % owned by the exporting or the importing Party or public entities or nationals of these Parties.

3. For the purpose of paragraph 2, when the exporting or the importing Party is the European Union, it means the Member States of the European Union.

4. For the purpose of paragraph 2, the EFTA States are to be considered as one applying Contracting Party.

ARTICLE 4

Sufficient working or processing

1. Without prejudice to paragraph 3 of this Article and to Article 6, products which are not wholly obtained in a Party shall be considered to be sufficiently worked or processed when the conditions laid down in the list in Annex II for the goods concerned are fulfilled.

2. If a product which has obtained originating status in a Party in accordance with paragraph 1 is used as a material in the manufacture of another product, no account shall be taken of the non-originating materials which may have been used in its manufacture.

3. The determination of whether the requirements of paragraph 1 are met, shall be carried out for each product.

However, where the relevant rule is based on compliance with a maximum content of non-originating materials, the customs authorities of the Parties may authorise exporters to calculate the ex-works price of the product and the value of the non-originating materials on an average basis as set out in paragraph 4, in order to take into account the fluctuations in costs and currency rates.

4. Where the second subparagraph of paragraph 3 applies, an average ex-works price of the product and average value of non-originating materials used shall be calculated respectively on the basis of the sum of the ex-works prices charged for all sales of the same products carried out during the preceding fiscal year and the sum of the value of all the non-originating materials used in the manufacture of the same products over the preceding fiscal year as defined in the exporting Party, or, where figures for a complete fiscal year are not available, a shorter period which should not be less than three months.

5. Exporters having opted for calculation on an average basis shall consistently apply such a method during the year following the fiscal year of reference, or, where appropriate, during the year following the shorter period used as a reference. They may cease to apply such a method where during a given fiscal year, or a shorter representative period of no less than three months, they record that the fluctuations in costs or currency rates which justified the use of such a method have ceased.

6. The averages referred to in paragraph 4 shall be used as the ex-works price and the value of non-originating materials, respectively, for the purpose of establishing compliance with the maximum content of non-originating materials.

ARTICLE 5

Tolerance rule

1. By way of derogation from Article 4 and subject to paragraphs 2 and 3 of this Article, non-originating materials which, according to the conditions set out in the list in Annex II, are not to be used in the manufacture of a given product may nevertheless be used, provided that their total net weight or value assessed for the product does not exceed:

- (a) 15 % of the net weight of the product falling within Chapters 2 and 4 to 24, other than processed fishery products of Chapter 16;
- (b) 15 % of the ex-works price of the product for products other than those covered by point (a).

This paragraph shall not apply to products falling within Chapters 50 to 63 of the Harmonised System, for which the tolerances mentioned in Notes 6 and 7 of Annex I shall apply.

2. Paragraph 1 of this Article shall not allow to exceed any of the percentages for the maximum content of non-originating materials as specified in the rules laid down in the list in Annex II.

3. Paragraphs 1 and 2 of this Article shall not apply to products wholly obtained in a Party within the meaning of Article 3. However, without prejudice to Article 6 and Article 9(1), the tolerance provided for in those provisions shall nevertheless apply to products for which the rule laid down in the list in Annex II requires that the materials which are used in the manufacture of that product are wholly obtained.

ARTICLE 6

Insufficient working or processing

1. Without prejudice to paragraph 2 of this Article, the following operations shall be considered to be insufficient working or processing to confer the status of an originating product, whether or not the requirements of Article 4 are satisfied:

- (a) preserving operations to ensure that the products remain in good condition during transport and storage;
- (b) breaking-up and assembly of packages;
- (c) washing, cleaning; removal of dust, oxide, oil, paint or other coverings;
- (d) ironing or pressing of textiles;
- (e) simple painting and polishing operations;
- (f) husking and partial or total milling of rice; polishing, and glazing of cereals and rice;
- (g) operations to colour or flavour sugar or form sugar lumps; partial or total milling of crystal sugar;
- (h) peeling, stoning and shelling, of fruits, nuts and vegetables;
- (i) sharpening, simple grinding or simple cutting;
- (j) sifting, screening, sorting, classifying, grading, matching; (including the making-up of sets of articles);
- (k) simple placing in bottles, cans, flasks, bags, cases, boxes, fixing on cards or boards and all other simple packaging operations;
- (l) affixing or printing marks, labels, logos and other like distinguishing signs on products or their packaging;
- (m) simple mixing of products, whether or not of different kinds;
- (n) mixing of sugar with any material;
- (o) simple addition of water or dilution or dehydration or denaturation of products;
- (p) simple assembly of parts of articles to constitute a complete article or disassembly of products into parts;
- (q) slaughter of animals;

(r) a combination of two or more operations specified in points (a) to (q).

2. All the operations carried out in the exporting Party on a given product shall be taken into account when determining whether the working or processing undergone by that product is to be regarded as insufficient within the meaning of paragraph 1.

ARTICLE 7

Cumulation of origin

1. Without prejudice to Article 2, products shall be considered as originating in the exporting Party when exported to another Party if they are obtained there, incorporating materials originating in any applying Contracting Party other than the exporting Party provided that the working or processing carried out in the exporting Party goes beyond the operations referred to in Article 6. It shall not be necessary for such materials to have undergone sufficient working or processing.

2. Where the working or processing carried out in the exporting Party does not go beyond the operations referred to in Article 6, the product obtained by incorporating materials originating in any other applying Contracting Party, shall be considered as originating in the exporting Party only where the value added there is greater than the value of the materials used originating in any of the other applying Contracting Parties. If this is not so, the product obtained shall be considered as originating in the applying Contracting Party which accounts for the highest value of originating materials used in the manufacture in the exporting Party.

3. Without prejudice to Article 2, and with the exclusion of products falling within Chapters 50 to 63, working or processing carried out in an applying Contracting Party other than the exporting Party shall be considered as having been carried out in the exporting Party when the products obtained undergo subsequent working or processing in this exporting Party.

4. Without prejudice to Article 2, for products falling within Chapters 50 to 63 and only for the purpose of bilateral trade between the Parties, working or processing carried out in the importing Party shall be considered as having been carried out in the exporting Party when the products undergo subsequent working or processing in this exporting Party.

For the purpose of this paragraph, the participants in the European Union's Stabilisation and Association process and the Republic of Moldova are to be considered as one applying Contracting Party.

5. The Parties may opt to extend the application of paragraph 3 of this Article on importation of products falling within Chapters 50 to 63 unilaterally. A Party that opts for such extension shall notify the other Party and inform the European Commission in accordance with Article 8(2).

6. For the purpose of cumulation within the meaning of paragraphs 3 to 5 of this Article, the originating products shall be considered as originating in the exporting Party only if the working or processing undergone there goes beyond the operations referred to in Article 6.

7. Products originating in one of the applying Contracting Parties referred to in paragraph 1 which do not undergo any working or processing in the exporting Party shall retain their origin if exported into one of the other applying Contracting Parties.

ARTICLE 8

Conditions for the application of cumulation of origin

1. The cumulation provided for in Article 7 may be applied only provided that:
 - (a) a preferential trade agreement in accordance with Article XXIV of the General Agreement on Tariffs and Trade 1994 (GATT) is applicable between the applying Contracting Parties involved in the acquisition of the originating status and the applying Contracting Party of destination; and
 - (b) goods have obtained originating status by the application of rules of origin identical to those given in these Rules.
2. Notices indicating the fulfilment of the necessary requirements to apply cumulation shall be published in the Official Journal of the European Union (C series) and in an official publication in the Parties, in accordance with their own procedures.

The cumulation provided for in Article 7 shall apply from the date indicated in those notices.

The Parties shall provide the European Commission with details of the relevant agreements concluded with other applying Contracting Parties, including the dates of entry into force of these Rules.

3. The proof of origin should include the statement in English 'CUMULATION APPLIED WITH (name of the relevant applying Contracting Party/Parties in English)' when products obtained the originating status by application of cumulation of origin in accordance with Article 7.

In cases where a movement certificate EUR.1 is used as a proof of origin, that statement shall be made in Box 7 of the movement certificate EUR.1.

4. The Parties agree to waive the obligation to include in the proof of origin the statement referred to in Article 8(3).

The Parties shall notify the waiver to the European Commission in accordance with Article 8(2).

ARTICLE 9

Unit of qualification

1. The unit of qualification for the application of these Rules shall be the particular product which is considered to be the basic unit when determining classification using the nomenclature of the Harmonised System. It follows that:

- (a) when a product composed of a group or assembly of articles is classified under the terms of the Harmonised System in a single heading, the whole constitutes the unit of qualification;
- (b) when a consignment consists of a number of identical products classified under the same heading of the Harmonised System, each individual item shall be taken into account when applying these Rules.

2. Where under General Rule 5 of the Harmonised System packaging is included with the product for classification purposes, it shall be included for the purposes of determining origin.

3. Accessories, spare parts and tools dispatched with a piece of equipment, machine, apparatus or vehicle which are part of the normal equipment and included in the ex-works price thereof shall be regarded as one with the piece of equipment, machine, apparatus or vehicle in question.

ARTICLE 10

Sets

Sets, as defined in General Rule 3 of the Harmonised System, shall be regarded as originating when all the component products are originating.

When a set is composed of originating and non-originating products, the set as a whole shall however be regarded as originating, provided that the value of the non-originating products does not exceed 15 % of the ex-works price of the set.

ARTICLE 11

Neutral elements

In order to determine whether a product is an originating product, no account shall be taken of the origin of the following which might be used in its manufacture:

- (a) energy and fuel;
- (b) plant and equipment;
- (c) machines and tools;
- (d) any other goods which do not enter, and which are not intended to enter, into the final composition of the product.

ARTICLE 12

Accounting segregation

1. If originating and non-originating fungible materials are used in the working or processing of a product, economic operators may ensure the management of materials using the accounting segregation method, without keeping the materials on separate stocks.

2. Economic operators may ensure the management of originating and non-originating fungible products of heading 1701 using the accounting segregation method, without keeping the products on separate stocks.

3. The Parties may require that the application of accounting segregation is subject to prior authorisation by the Customs authorities. The Customs authorities may grant the authorisation subject to any conditions they deem appropriate and shall monitor the use made of the authorisation. The Customs authorities may withdraw the authorisation whenever the beneficiary makes improper use of the authorisation in any manner whatsoever or fails to fulfil any of the other conditions laid down in these Rules.

Through the use of accounting segregation it must be ensured that, at any time, no more products can be considered as 'originating in the exporting Party than would have been the case if a method of physical segregation of the stocks had been used.

The method shall be applied and the application thereof shall be recorded on the basis of the general accounting principles applicable in the exporting Party.

4. The beneficiary of the method referred to in paragraphs 1 and 2 shall make out or apply for proofs of origin for the quantity of products which may be considered as originating in the exporting Party. At the request of the customs authorities, the beneficiary shall provide a statement of how the quantities have been managed.

TITLE III
TERRITORIAL REQUIREMENTS

ARTICLE 13

Principle of territoriality

1. The conditions set out in Title II shall be fulfilled without any interruption in the Party concerned.
2. If originating products exported from a Party to another country are returned, they shall be considered to be non-originating, unless it can be demonstrated to the satisfaction of the customs authorities that:
 - (a) the products returned are the same as those which were exported; and
 - (b) they have not undergone any operations beyond that necessary to preserve them in good condition while in that country or while being exported.
3. The obtention of originating status in accordance with the conditions set out in Title II shall not be affected by working or processing done outside the exporting Party on materials exported from this Party and subsequently re-imported there, provided:
 - (a) those materials are wholly obtained in the exporting Party or have undergone working or processing beyond the operations referred to in Article 6 prior to being exported; and
 - (b) it can be demonstrated to the satisfaction of the customs authorities that:
 - (i) the re-imported products have been obtained by working or processing the exported materials; and
 - (ii) the total added value acquired outside the exporting Party by applying this Article does not exceed 10 % of the ex-works price of the end product for which originating status is claimed.
4. For the purposes of paragraph 3 of this Article, the conditions for obtaining originating status set out in Title II shall not apply to working or processing done outside the exporting Party. However, where, in the list in Annex II, a rule setting a maximum value for all the non-originating materials incorporated is applied in determining the originating status of the end product, the total value of the non-originating materials incorporated in the territory of the exporting Party, taken together with the total added value acquired outside this Party by applying this Article, shall not exceed the stated percentage.
5. For the purposes of applying paragraphs 3 and 4, 'total added value' shall be taken to mean all costs arising outside the exporting Party, including the value of the materials incorporated there.

6. Paragraphs 3 and 4 of this Article shall not apply to products which do not fulfil the conditions set out in the list in Annex II or which can be considered sufficiently worked or processed only if the general tolerance fixed in Article 5 is applied.

7. Any working or processing of the kind covered by this Article and done outside the exporting Party shall be done under the outward processing arrangements, or similar arrangements.

ARTICLE 14

Non-alteration

1. The preferential treatment provided for under the Agreement shall apply only to products satisfying the requirements of these Rules and declared for importation in a Party provided that those products are the same as those exported from the exporting Party. They shall not have been altered, transformed in any way or subjected to operations other than to preserve them in good condition or than adding or affixing marks, labels, seals or any documentation to ensure compliance with specific domestic requirements of the importing Party carried out under customs supervision in the third country(ies) of transit or splitting prior to being declared for home use.

2. Storage of products or consignments may take place provided they remain under customs supervision in the third country(ies) of transit.

3. Without prejudice to Title V of this Appendix, the splitting of consignments may take place, provided they remain under customs supervision in the third country(ies) of splitting.

4. In the case of doubt, the importing Party may request the importer or its representative to submit at any time all appropriate documents to provide evidence of compliance with this Article, which may be given by any documentary evidence, and notably by:

- (a) contractual transport documents such as bills of lading;
- (b) factual or concrete evidence based on marking or numbering of packages;
- (c) a certificate of non-manipulation provided by the customs authorities of the country(ies) of transit or splitting or any other documents demonstrating that the goods remained under customs supervision in the country(ies) of transit or splitting; or
- (d) any evidence related to the goods themselves.

ARTICLE 15

Exhibitions

1. Originating products, sent for exhibition in a country other than with which cumulation is applicable in accordance with Articles 7 and 8 and sold after the exhibition for importation in a Party, shall benefit on importation from the relevant agreement provided it is shown to the satisfaction of the customs authorities that:

- (a) an exporter has consigned the products from a Party to the country in which the exhibition is held and has exhibited them there;
- (b) the products have been sold or otherwise disposed of by that exporter to a person in another Party;
- (c) the products have been consigned during the exhibition or immediately thereafter in the state in which they were sent for exhibition; and
- (d) the products have not, since they were consigned for exhibition, been used for any purpose other than demonstration at the exhibition.

2. A proof of origin shall be issued or made out in accordance with Title V of this Appendix and submitted to the customs authorities of the importing Party in the normal manner. The name and address of the exhibition shall be indicated thereon. Where necessary, additional documentary evidence of the conditions under which they have been exhibited may be required.

3. Paragraph 1 shall apply to any trade, industrial, agricultural or crafts exhibition, fair or similar public show or display which is not organised for private purposes in shops or business premises with a view to the sale of foreign products, and during which the products remain under customs control.

TITLE IV

DRAWBACK OR EXEMPTION

ARTICLE 16

Drawback of or exemption from customs duties

1. Non-originating materials used in the manufacture of products falling within Chapters 50 to 63 of the Harmonised System originating in a Party for which a proof of origin is issued or made out in accordance with Title V of this Appendix shall not be subject in the exporting Party to drawback of or exemption from customs duties of whatever kind.
2. The prohibition in paragraph 1 shall apply to any arrangement for refund, remission or non-payment, partial or complete, of customs duties or charges having an equivalent effect, applicable in the exporting Party to materials used in the manufacture, where such refund, remission or non-payment applies, expressly or in effect, when products obtained from the said materials are exported and not when they are retained for home use there.
3. The exporter of products covered by a proof of origin shall be prepared to submit at any time, upon request from the customs authorities, all appropriate documents proving that no drawback has been obtained in respect of the non-originating materials used in the manufacture of the products concerned and that all customs duties or charges having equivalent effect applicable to such materials have actually been paid.
4. The prohibition in paragraph 1 of this Article shall not apply to trade between the Parties for products that obtained originating status by application of cumulation of origin covered by Article 7(4) or (5).

TITLE V

PROOF OF ORIGIN

ARTICLE 17

General requirements

1. Products originating in one of the Parties shall, on importation into another Party, benefit from the provisions of the Agreement upon submission of one of the following proofs of origin:

- (a) a movement certificate EUR.1, a specimen of which appears in Annex IV to this Appendix;
- (b) in the cases specified in Article 18(1), a declaration, subsequently referred to as the 'origin declaration' given by the exporter on an invoice, a delivery note or any other commercial document which describes the products concerned in sufficient detail to enable them to be identified; the text of the origin declaration appears in Annex III to this Appendix.

2. Notwithstanding paragraph 1 of this Article, originating products within the meaning of these Rules shall, in the cases specified in Article 27, benefit from the provisions of the Agreement without it being necessary to submit any of the proofs of origin referred to in paragraph 1 of this Article.

3. Without prejudice to paragraph 1, the Parties may agree that, for the preferential trade between them, proofs of origin listed in points (a) and (b) of paragraph 1 are replaced by statements on origin made out by exporters registered in an electronic database in accordance with the internal legislation of the Parties.

The use of a statement on origin made out by the exporters registered in an electronic database agreed by two or more applying Contracting Parties shall not impede the use of diagonal cumulation with other applying Contracting Parties.

4. For the purposes of paragraph 1, the Parties may agree to establish a system that allows proofs of origin listed in points (a) and (b) of paragraph 1 to be issued electronically and/or submitted electronically.

5. For the purpose of Article 7, if Article 8(4) applies, the exporter established in an applying Contracting Party who issues, or applies for, a proof of origin on the basis of another proof of origin which benefits from a waiver from the obligation to include the statement as otherwise required by Article 8(3) shall take all necessary steps to ensure that the conditions for applying cumulation are fulfilled and shall be prepared to submit all relevant documents to the customs authorities.

ARTICLE 18

Conditions for making out an origin declaration

1. An origin declaration as referred to in point (b) of Article 17(1) may be made out:
 - (a) by an approved exporter within the meaning of Article 19; or
 - (b) by any exporter for any consignment consisting of one or more packages containing originating products the total value of which does not exceed EUR 6 000.
2. An origin declaration may be made out if the products can be considered as originating in an applying Contracting Party and fulfil the other requirements of these Rules.
3. The exporter making out an origin declaration shall be prepared to submit at any time, at the request of the customs authorities of the exporting Party, all appropriate documents proving the originating status of the products concerned as well as the fulfilment of the other requirements of these Rules.
4. An origin declaration shall be made out by the exporter by typing, stamping or printing on the invoice, the delivery note or another commercial document, the declaration, the text of which appears in Annex III to this Appendix, using one of the linguistic versions set out in that Annex and in accordance with the provisions of the national law of the exporting country. If the declaration is handwritten, it shall be written in ink in printed characters.
5. Origin declarations shall bear the original signature of the exporter in manuscript. However, an approved exporter within the meaning of Article 19 shall not be required to sign such declarations provided that he gives the customs authorities of the exporting Party a written undertaking that he accepts full responsibility for any origin declaration which identifies him as if it had been signed in manuscript by him.
6. An origin declaration may be made out by the exporter when the products to which it relates are exported, or after exportation (the 'retrospective origin declaration') on condition that it is presented in the importing country within two years after the importation of the products to which it relates.

Where the splitting of a consignment takes place in accordance with Article 14(3) and provided that the same two-year deadline is respected, the retrospective origin declaration shall be made out by the approved exporter of the exporting Party of the products.

ARTICLE 19

Approved exporter

1. The customs authorities of the exporting Party may, subject to national requirements, authorise any exporter established in that Party (the 'approved exporter'), to make out origin declarations irrespective of the value of the products concerned.

2. An exporter who requests such authorisation must offer, to the satisfaction of the customs authorities, all guarantees necessary to verify the originating status of the products as well as the fulfilment of the other requirements of these Rules.

3. The customs authorities shall grant to the approved exporter a customs authorisation number which shall appear on the origin declaration.

4. The customs authorities shall verify the proper use of an authorisation. They may withdraw the authorisation if the approved exporter makes improper use of it and shall do so if the approved exporter no longer offers the guarantees referred to in paragraph 2.

ARTICLE 20

Procedure for issuing of a movement certificate EUR.1

1. A movement certificate EUR.1 shall be issued by the customs authorities of the exporting Party on application having been made in writing by the exporter or, under the exporter's responsibility, by his authorised representative.

2. For that purpose, the exporter or his authorised representative shall fill in both the movement certificate EUR.1 and the application form, specimens of which appear in Annex IV to this Appendix. Those forms shall be completed in one of the languages in which the Agreement is drawn up and in accordance with the provisions of the national law of the exporting country. If the completion of the forms is done in handwriting, they shall be completed in ink in printed characters. The description of the products shall be given in the box reserved for this purpose without leaving any blank lines. Where the box is not completely filled, a horizontal line shall be drawn below the last line of the description, the empty space being crossed through.

3. The movement certificate EUR.1 shall include the statement in English 'TRANSITIONAL RULES' in box 7.

4. The exporter applying for the issue of a movement certificate EUR.1 shall be prepared to submit at any time, at the request of the customs authorities of the exporting Party where the movement certificate EUR.1 is issued, all appropriate documents proving the originating status of the products concerned as well as the fulfilment of the other requirements of these Rules.

5. A movement certificate EUR.1 shall be issued by the customs authorities of the exporting Party if the products concerned can be considered as products originating and fulfil the other requirements of these Rules.

6. The customs authorities issuing movement certificates EUR.1 shall take any steps necessary to verify the originating status of the products and the fulfilment of the other requirements of these Rules. For that purpose, they shall have the right to call for any evidence and to carry out any inspection of the exporter's accounts or any other check considered appropriate. They shall also ensure that the forms referred to in paragraph 2 of this Article are duly completed. In particular, they shall check whether the space reserved for the description of the products has been completed in such a manner as to exclude all possibility of fraudulent additions.

7. The date of issue of the movement certificate EUR.1 shall be indicated in Box 11 of the movement certificate EUR.1.

8. A movement certificate EUR.1 shall be issued by the customs authorities and made available to the exporter as soon as actual exportation has been effected or ensured.

ARTICLE 21

Movement certificates EUR.1 issued retrospectively

1. Notwithstanding Article 20(8), a movement certificate EUR.1 may be issued after exportation of the products to which it relates if:

- (a) it was not issued at the time of exportation because of errors or involuntary omissions or special circumstances;
- (b) it is demonstrated to the satisfaction of the customs authorities that a movement certificate EUR.1 was issued but was not accepted at importation for technical reasons;
- (c) the final destination of the products concerned was not known at the time of exportation and was determined during their transportation or storage and after possible splitting of consignments in accordance with Article 14(3);
- (d) a movement certificate EUR.1 or EUR.MED was issued in accordance with the rules of the PEM Convention for products that are also originating in accordance with these Rules; the exporter shall take all necessary steps to ensure that the conditions to apply cumulation are fulfilled and be prepared to submit to the customs authorities all relevant documents proving that the product is originating in accordance with these Rules; or
- (e) a movement certificate EUR.1 was issued on the basis of Article 8(4) and the application of Article 8(3) is required at importation in another applying Contracting Party.

2. For the implementation of paragraph 1, the exporter shall indicate in his application the place and date of exportation of the products to which the movement certificate EUR.1 relates, and state the reasons for his request.

3. The customs authorities may issue a movement certificate EUR.1 retrospectively within two years from the date of exportation and only after verifying that the information supplied in the exporter's application complies with that in the corresponding file.

4. In addition to the requirement under Article 20(3), movement certificates EUR.1 issued retrospectively shall be endorsed with the following phrase in English: 'ISSUED RETROSPECTIVELY'.

5. The endorsement referred to in paragraph 4 shall be inserted in Box 7 of the movement certificate EUR.1.

ARTICLE 22

Issue of a duplicate movement certificate EUR.1

1. In the event of theft, loss or destruction of a movement certificate EUR.1, the exporter may apply to the customs authorities which issued it for a duplicate made out on the basis of the export documents in their possession.
2. In addition to the requirement under Article 20(3), the duplicate issued in accordance with paragraph 1 of this Article shall be endorsed with the following word in English: 'DUPLICATE'.
3. The endorsement referred to in paragraph 2 shall be inserted in Box 7 of the duplicate movement certificate EUR.1.
4. The duplicate, which shall bear the date of issue of the original movement certificate EUR.1, shall take effect as from that date.

ARTICLE 23

Validity of proof of origin

1. A proof of origin shall be valid for ten months from the date of issue or making out in the exporting Party, and shall be submitted within that period to the customs authorities of the importing Party.
2. Proofs of origin which are submitted to the customs authorities of the importing Party after the period of validity referred to in paragraph 1 may be accepted for the purpose of applying the tariff preferences, where failure to submit those documents by the final date set is due to exceptional circumstances.
3. In other cases of belated presentation, the customs authorities of the importing Party may accept the proofs of origin where the products have been presented to customs before the said final date.

ARTICLE 24

Free zones

1. The Parties shall take all necessary steps to ensure that products traded under cover of a proof of origin which in the course of transport use a free zone situated in their territory are not substituted by other goods and do not undergo handling other than normal operations designed to prevent their deterioration.
2. By way of derogation from paragraph 1, when products originating in an applying Contracting Party are imported into a free zone under cover of a proof of origin and undergo treatment or processing, a new proof of origin may be issued or made out, if the treatment or processing undergone complies with these Rules.

ARTICLE 25

Importation requirements

Proofs of origin shall be submitted to the customs authorities of the importing Party in accordance with the procedures applicable in that Party.

ARTICLE 26

Importation by instalments

Where, at the request of the importer and subject to the conditions laid down by the customs authorities of the importing Party, dismantled or non-assembled products within the meaning of General Rule 2(a) for the interpretation of the Harmonised System falling within Sections XVI and XVII or headings 7308 and 9406 are imported by instalments, a single proof of origin for such products shall be submitted to the customs authorities on importation of the first instalment.

ARTICLE 27

Exemptions from proof of origin

1. Products sent as small packages from private persons to private persons or forming part of travellers' personal luggage shall be admitted as originating products without requiring the submission of a proof of origin, provided that such products are not imported by way of trade and have been declared as meeting the requirements of these Rules and where there is no doubt as to the veracity of such a declaration.
2. Imports shall not be considered as imports by way of trade if all the following conditions are met:
 - (a) the imports are occasional;
 - (b) the imports consist solely of products for the personal use of the recipients or travellers or their families;
 - (c) it is evident from the nature and quantity of the products that no commercial purpose is in view.
3. The total value of those products shall not exceed EUR 500 in the case of small packages or EUR 1 200 in the case of products forming part of travellers' personal luggage.

ARTICLE 28

Discrepancies and formal errors

1. The discovery of slight discrepancies between the statements made in the proof of origin and those made in the documents submitted to the customs office for the purpose of carrying out the formalities for importing the products shall not ipso facto render the proof of origin null and void if it is duly established that that document does correspond to the products submitted.

2. Obvious formal errors such as typing errors on a proof of origin shall not cause the documents referred to in paragraph 1 of this Article to be rejected if those errors are not such as to create doubts concerning the correctness of the statements made in those documents.

ARTICLE 29

Supplier's declarations

1. When a movement certificate EUR.1 is issued or an origin declaration is made out in a Party for originating products, in the manufacture of which goods coming from another applying Contracting Party which have undergone working or processing there without having obtained preferential originating status have been used in accordance with Article 7(3) or Article 7(4) account shall be taken of the supplier's declaration given for those goods in accordance with this Article.

2. The supplier's declaration referred to in paragraph 1 shall serve as evidence of the working or processing undergone in an applying Contracting Party by the goods concerned for the purpose of determining whether the products in the manufacture of which those goods are used, may be considered as products originating in the exporting Party and fulfil the other requirements of these Rules.

3. A separate supplier's declaration shall, except in the cases referred to in paragraph 4, be made out by the supplier for each consignment of goods in the form prescribed in Annex VI on a sheet of paper annexed to the invoice, the delivery note or any other commercial document describing the goods concerned in sufficient detail to enable them to be identified.

4. Where a supplier regularly supplies a particular customer with goods for which the working or processing undergone in an applying Contracting Party is expected to remain constant for a period of time, he may provide a single supplier's declaration to cover subsequent consignments of those goods (the 'long-term supplier's declaration'). A long-term supplier's declaration may normally be valid for a period of up to two years from the date of making out the declaration. The customs authorities of the applying Contracting Party where the declaration is made out lay down the conditions under which longer periods may be used. The long-term supplier's declaration shall be made out by the supplier in the form prescribed in Annex VII and shall describe the goods concerned in sufficient detail to enable them to be identified. It shall be provided to the customer concerned before he is supplied with the first consignment of goods covered by that declaration or together with his first consignment. The supplier shall inform his customer immediately if the long-term supplier's declaration is no longer applicable to the goods supplied.

5. The supplier's declarations referred to in paragraphs 3 and 4 shall be typed or printed using one of the languages of the Agreement, in accordance with the national law of the applying Contracting Party where the declaration is made out, and shall bear the original signature of the supplier in manuscript. The declaration may also be handwritten; in such a case, it shall be written in ink in printed characters.

6. The supplier making out a declaration shall be prepared to submit at any time, at the request of the customs authorities of the applying Contracting Party where the declaration is made out, all appropriate documents proving that the information given on that declaration is correct.

ARTICLE 30

Amounts expressed in euro

1. For the purposes of application of the point (b) of Article 18(1) and Article 27(3) in cases where products are invoiced in a currency other than euro, amounts in the national currencies of the Party equivalent to the amounts expressed in euro shall be fixed annually by each of the countries concerned.

2. A consignment shall benefit from the point (b) of Article 18(1) or Article 27(3) by reference to the currency in which the invoice is drawn up, according to the amount fixed by the country concerned.

3. The amounts to be used in any given national currency shall be the equivalent in that currency of the amounts expressed in euro as at the first working day of October. The amounts shall be communicated to the European Commission by 15 October and shall apply from 1 January the following year. The European Commission shall notify all countries concerned of the relevant amounts.

4. A Party may round up or down the amount resulting from the conversion into its national currency of an amount expressed in euro. The rounded-off amount may not differ from the amount resulting from the conversion by more than 5 %. A Party may retain unchanged its national currency equivalent of an amount expressed in euro if, at the time of the annual adjustment provided for in paragraph 3, the conversion of that amount, prior to any rounding-off, results in an increase of less than 15 % in the national currency equivalent. The national currency equivalent may be retained unchanged if the conversion were to result in a decrease in that equivalent value.

5. The amounts expressed in euro shall be reviewed by the Joint Committee at the request of a Party. When carrying out that review, the Joint Committee shall consider the desirability of preserving the effects of the limits concerned in real terms. For that purpose, it may decide to modify the amounts expressed in euro.

TITLE VI
PRINCIPLES OF COOPERATION AND DOCUMENTARY EVIDENCE

ARTICLE 31

Documentary evidence, preservation of proofs of origin and supporting documents

1. An exporter who has made out an origin declaration or has applied for a movement certificate EUR.1 shall keep a hard copy or an electronic version of those proofs of origin and all documents supporting the originating status of the product, for at least three years from the date of issuance or making out of the origin declaration.

2. The supplier making out a supplier's declaration shall keep copies of the declaration and of all the invoices, delivery notes or other commercial documents to which that declaration is annexed as well as the documents referred to in Article 29(6) for at least three years.

The supplier making out a long-term supplier's declaration shall keep copies of the declaration and of all the invoices, delivery notes or other commercial documents concerning goods covered by that declaration sent to the customer concerned, as well as the documents referred to in Article 29(6) for at least three years. That period shall begin from the date of expiry of validity of the long-term supplier's declaration.

3. For the purposes of paragraph 1 of this Article, the documents supporting the originating status, inter alia, are the following:

- (a) direct evidence of the processes carried out by the exporter or supplier to obtain the product, contained, for example, in his accounts or internal bookkeeping;
- (b) documents proving the originating status of materials used, issued or made out in the relevant applying Contracting Party in accordance with its national legislation;
- (c) documents proving the working or processing of materials in the relevant Party, made out or issued in that Party in accordance with its national legislation;
- (d) origin declarations or movement certificates EUR.1 proving the originating status of materials used, made out or issued in the Parties in accordance with these Rules;
- (e) appropriate evidence concerning working or processing undergone outside the Parties by application of Articles 13 and 14, proving the fulfilment of the requirements of those Articles.

4. The customs authorities of the exporting Party issuing movement certificates EUR.1 shall keep the application form referred to in Article 20(2) for at least three years.

5. The customs authorities of the importing Party shall keep the origin declarations and the movement certificates EUR.1 submitted to them for at least three years.

6. Supplier's declarations proving the working or processing undergone in an applying Contracting Party by materials used, made out in that applying Contracting Party, shall be treated as a document referred to in Articles 18(3), 20(4) and 29(6) used for the purpose of proving that products covered by a movement certificate EUR.1 or an origin declaration may be considered as products originating in that applying Contracting Party and fulfil the other requirements of these Rules.

ARTICLE 32

Dispute settlement

Where disputes arise in relation to the verification procedures under Articles 34 and 35, or in relation to the interpretation of this Appendix, which cannot be settled between the customs authorities requesting a verification and the customs authorities responsible for carrying out the verification, they shall be submitted to the Joint Committee.

In all cases the settlement of disputes between the importer and the customs authorities of the importing Party shall take place in accordance with the legislation of that country.

TITLE VII

ADMINISTRATIVE COOPERATION

ARTICLE 33

Notification and cooperation

1. The customs authorities of the Parties shall provide each other with specimen impressions of stamps used in their customs offices for the issue of movement certificates EUR.1, with the models of the authorisation numbers granted to approved exporters and with the addresses of the customs authorities responsible for verifying those certificates and origin declarations.
2. In order to ensure the proper application of these Rules, the Parties shall assist each other, through the competent customs authorities, in checking the authenticity of the movement certificates EUR.1, the origin declarations, the supplier's declarations and the correctness of the information given in those documents.

ARTICLE 34

Verification of proofs of origin

1. Subsequent verifications of proofs of origin shall be carried out at random or whenever the customs authorities of the importing Party have reasonable doubts as to the authenticity of such documents, the originating status of the products concerned or the fulfilment of the other requirements of these Rules.
2. When they make a request for subsequent verification, the customs authorities of the importing Party shall return the movement certificate EUR.1 and the invoice, if it has been submitted, the origin declaration, or a copy of those documents, to the customs authorities of the exporting Party giving, where appropriate, the reasons for the request for verification. Any documents and information obtained suggesting that the information given on the proof of origin is incorrect shall be forwarded in support of the request for verification.
3. The verification shall be carried out by the customs authorities of the exporting Party. For that purpose, they shall have the right to call for any evidence and to carry out any inspection of the exporter's accounts or any other check considered appropriate.
4. If the customs authorities of the importing Party decide to suspend the granting of preferential treatment to the products concerned while awaiting the results of the verification, release of the products shall be offered to the importer subject to any precautionary measures judged necessary.
5. The customs authorities requesting the verification shall be informed of the results thereof as soon as possible. Those results shall indicate clearly whether the documents are authentic and whether the products concerned may be considered as products originating in one of the Parties and fulfil the other requirements of these Rules.

6. If in cases of reasonable doubt there is no reply within ten months of the date of the verification request or if the reply does not contain sufficient information to determine the authenticity of the document in question or the real origin of the products, the requesting customs authorities shall, except in exceptional circumstances, refuse entitlement to the preferences.

ARTICLE 35

Verification of supplier's declarations

1. Subsequent verifications of supplier's declarations or long-term supplier's declarations may be carried out at random or whenever the customs authorities of a Party where such declarations have been taken into account to issue a movement certificate EUR.1 or to make out an origin declaration, have reasonable doubts as to the authenticity of the document or the correctness of the information given in that document.

2. For the purposes of implementing the provisions of paragraph 1, the customs authorities of the Party referred to in paragraph 1 shall return the supplier's declaration or the long-term supplier's declaration and invoice(s), delivery note(s) or other commercial document(s) concerning goods covered by such declaration, to the customs authorities of the applying Contracting Party where the declaration was made out, giving, where appropriate, the reasons of substance or form of the request for verification.

They shall forward, in support of the request for subsequent verification, any documents and information that have been obtained suggesting that the information given in the supplier's declaration or the long-term supplier's declaration is incorrect.

3. The verification shall be carried out by the customs authorities of the applying Contracting Party where the supplier's declaration or the long-term supplier's declaration was made out. For that purpose, they shall have the right to call for any evidence and carry out any inspection of the supplier's accounts or any other check which they consider appropriate.

4. The customs authorities requesting the verification shall be informed of the results thereof as soon as possible. Those results shall indicate clearly whether the information given in the supplier's declaration or the long-term supplier's declaration is correct and make it possible for them to determine whether and to what extent such declaration could be taken into account for issuing a movement certificate EUR.1 or for making out an origin declaration.

ARTICLE 36

Penalties

Each Party shall provide for the imposition of criminal, civil or administrative penalties for violations of its national legislation related to these Rules.

TITLE VIII

APPLICATION OF APPENDIX A

ARTICLE 37

European Economic Area

Goods originating in the European Economic Area (EEA) within the meaning of Protocol 4 to the Agreement on the European Economic Area shall be considered as originating in the European Union, Iceland, Liechtenstein or Norway (the 'EEA Parties') when exported respectively from the European Union, Iceland, Liechtenstein or Norway to Republic of Moldova, provided that free trade agreements using these Rules are applicable between the Republic of Moldova and the EEA Parties.

ARTICLE 38

Liechtenstein

ARTICLE 39

Republic of San Marino

Without prejudice to Article 2, a product originating in the Republic of San Marino shall, due to the customs union between the European Union and the Republic of San Marino, be considered as originating in the European Union.

ARTICLE 40

Principality of Andorra

Without prejudice to Article 2, a product originating in the Principality of Andorra classified under Chapters 25 to 97 of the Harmonised System shall, due to the customs union between the European Union and the Principality of Andorra, be considered as originating in the European Union.

ARTICLE 41

Ceuta and Melilla

1. For the purposes of these Rules, the term 'European Union' shall not cover Ceuta and Melilla.

2. Products originating in a Party, when imported into Ceuta or Melilla, shall enjoy in all respects the same customs regime as that which is applied to products originating in the customs territory of the European Union under Protocol 2 of the Act concerning the conditions of accession of the Kingdom of Spain and the Portuguese Republic and the adjustments to the Treaties¹. The Parties shall grant to imports of products covered by the relevant agreement and originating in Ceuta and Melilla the same customs regime as that which is granted to products imported from and originating in the European Union.

3. For the purposes of paragraph 2 of this Article concerning products originating in Ceuta and Melilla, these Rules shall apply mutatis mutandis subject to the special conditions set out in Annex V.

ANNEX I

INTRODUCTORY NOTES TO THE LIST IN ANNEX II

Note 1 – General introduction

The list sets out the conditions required for all products to be considered as sufficiently worked or processed within the meaning of Article 4 of Title II of this Appendix. There are four different types of rules, which vary according to the product:

- (a) through working or processing a maximum content of non-originating materials is not exceeded;
- (b) through working or processing the 4-digit Harmonised System heading or 6-digit Harmonised System subheading of the manufactured products becomes different from the 4-digit Harmonised System heading or 6-digit subheading respectively of the materials used;
- (c) a specific working or processing operation is carried out;
- (d) working or processing is carried out on certain wholly obtained materials.

Note 2 – The structure of the list

2.1. The first two columns in the list describe the product obtained. The column (1) gives the heading number or chapter number used in the Harmonised System and the column (2) gives the description of goods used in that system for that heading or chapter. For each entry in the first two columns, a rule is specified in column (3). Where, in some cases, the entry in the column (1) is preceded by an 'ex', this signifies that the rules in column (3) apply only to the part of that heading as described in column (2).

2.2. Where several heading numbers are grouped together in column (1) or a chapter number is given and the description of products in column (2) is therefore given in general terms, the adjacent rules in column (3) apply to all products which, under the Harmonised System, are classified in headings of the chapter or in any of the headings grouped together in column (1).

2.3. Where there are different rules in the list applying to different products within a heading, each indent contains the description of that part of the heading covered by the adjacent rules in column (3).

2.4. Where two alternative rules are set out in column (3), separated by 'or', it is at the choice of the exporter which one to use.

Note 3 – Examples of how to apply the rules

3.1. Article 4 of Title II of this Appendix, concerning products having obtained originating status which are used in the manufacture of other products, shall apply, regardless of whether that status has been obtained inside the factory where those products are used or in another factory in a Party.

3.2. Pursuant to Article 6 of Title II of this Appendix, the working or processing carried out must go beyond the list of operations mentioned in that Article. If it does not, the goods shall not qualify for the granting of the benefit of preferential tariff treatment, even if the conditions set out in the list below are met.

Subject to Article 6 of Title II of this Appendix, the rules in the list represent the minimum amount of working or processing required, and the carrying-out of more working or processing also confers originating status; conversely, the carrying-out of less working or processing cannot confer originating status.

Thus, if a rule provides that non-originating material, at a certain level of manufacture, may be used, the use of such material at an earlier stage of manufacture is allowed, and the use of such material at a later stage is not.

If a rule provides that non-originating material, at a certain level of manufacture, may not be used, the use of materials at an earlier stage of manufacture is allowed, and the use of materials at a later stage is not.

Example: when the list-rule for Chapter 19 requires that 'non-originating materials of headings 1101 to 1108 cannot exceed 20 % weight', the use (i.e. importation) of cereals of Chapter 10 (materials at an earlier stage of manufacture) is not limited.

3.3. Without prejudice to Note 3.2, where a rule uses the expression 'Manufacture from materials of any heading', then materials of any heading(s) (even materials of the same description and heading as the product) may be used, subject, however, to any specific limitations which may also be contained in the rule.

However, the expression 'Manufacture from materials of any heading, including other materials of heading ...' or 'Manufacture from materials of any heading, including other materials of the same heading as the product' means that materials of any heading(s) may be used, except those of the same description as the product as given in column (2) of the list.

3.4. When a rule in the list specifies that a product may be manufactured from more than one material, this means that one or more materials may be used. It does not require that all be used.

3.5. Where a rule in the list specifies that a product must be manufactured from a particular material, the condition does not prevent the use of other materials which, because of their inherent nature, cannot satisfy this.

3.6. Where, in a rule in the list, two percentages are given for the maximum value of non-originating materials that can be used, then those percentages may not be added together. In other words, the maximum value of all the non-originating materials used may never exceed the higher of the percentages given. Furthermore, the individual percentages shall not be exceeded, in relation to the particular materials to which they apply.

Note 4 – General provisions concerning certain agricultural goods

4.1. Agricultural goods falling within Chapters 6, 7, 8, 9, 10, 12 and heading 2401 which are grown or harvested in the territory of a Party shall be treated as originating in the territory of that Party, even if grown from imported seeds, bulbs, rootstock, cuttings, grafts, shoots, buds, or other live parts of plants.

4.2. In cases where the content of non-originating sugar in a given product is subject to limitations, the weight of sugars of headings 1701 (sucrose) and 1702 (e.g., fructose, glucose, lactose, maltose, isoglucose or invert sugar) used in the manufacture of the final product and used in the manufacture of the non-originating products incorporated in the final product is taken into account for the calculation of such limitations.

Note 5 – Terminology used in respect of certain textile products

5.1. The term 'natural fibres' is used in the list to refer to fibres other than artificial or synthetic fibres. It is restricted to the stages before spinning takes place, including waste, and, unless otherwise specified, includes fibres which have been carded, combed or otherwise processed, but not spun.

5.2. The term 'natural fibres' includes horsehair of heading 0511, silk of headings 5002 and 5003, as well as wool-fibres and fine or coarse animal hair of headings 5101 to 5105, cotton fibres of headings 5201 to 5203, and other vegetable fibres of headings 5301 to 5305.

5.3. The terms 'textile pulp', 'chemical materials' and 'paper-making materials' are used in the list to describe the materials, not classified in Chapters 50 to 63, which can be used to manufacture artificial, synthetic or paper fibres or yarns.

5.4. The term 'man-made staple fibres' is used in the list to refer to synthetic or artificial filament tow, staple fibres or waste, of headings 5501 to 5507.

5.5. Printing (when combined with Weaving, Knitting/Crocheting, Tufting or Flocking) is defined as a technique by which an objectively assessed function, like colour, design, technical performance, is given to a textile substrate with a permanent character, using screen, roller, digital or transfer techniques.

5.6. Printing (as standalone operation) is defined as a technique by which an objectively assessed function, like colour, design, technical performance, is given to a textile substrate with a permanent character, using screen, roller, digital or transfer techniques combined with at least two preparatory/finishing operations (such as scouring, bleaching, mercerizing, heat setting, raising, calendaring, shrink resistance processing, permanent finishing, decatizing, impregnating, mending and burling), provided that the value of all the materials used does not exceed 50 % of the ex-works price of the product.

Note 6 – Tolerances applicable to products made of a mixture of textile materials

6.1. Where, for a given product in the list, reference is made to this Note, the conditions set out in column (3) shall not be applied to any basic textile materials used in the manufacture of that product and which, taken together, represent 15 % or less of the total weight of all the basic textile materials used (See also Notes 6.3 and 6.4).

6.2. However, the tolerance mentioned in Note 6.1 may be applied only to mixed products which have been made from two or more basic textile materials.

The following are the basic textile materials:

- silk;
- wool;
- coarse animal hair;
- fine animal hair;
- horsehair;
- cotton;

- (i) isomerisation.

8.2. For the purposes of headings 2710, 2711 and 2712, the 'specific processes' are the following:

- (a) vacuum-distillation;
- (b) redistillation by a very thorough fractionation process;
- (c) cracking;
- (d) reforming;
- (e) extraction by means of selective solvents;
- (f) the process comprising all of the following operations: processing with concentrated sulphuric acid, oleum or sulphuric anhydride; neutralisation with alkaline agents; decolourisation and purification with naturally active earth, activated earth, activated charcoal or bauxite;
- (g) polymerisation;

- (l) in respect of heavy oils of heading ex 2710 only, treatment with hydrogen, at a pressure of more than 20 bar and a temperature of more than 250 °C, with the use of a catalyst, other than to effect desulphurisation, when the hydrogen constitutes an active element in a chemical reaction. The further treatment, with hydrogen, of lubricating oils of heading ex 2710 (e.g. hydrofinishing or decolourisation), in order, more especially, to improve colour or stability shall not, however, be deemed to be a specific process;

- (m) in respect of fuel oils of heading ex 2710 only, atmospheric distillation, on condition that less than 30 % of these products distils, by volume, including losses, at 300 °C, by the ASTM D 86 method;

8.3. For the purposes of headings ex 2707 and 2713, simple operations, such as cleaning, decanting, desalting, water separation, filtering, colouring, marking, obtaining a sulphur content as a result of mixing products with different sulphur contents, or any combination of those operations or like operations, do not confer origin.

Note 9 – Definition of specific processes and operations carried out in respect of certain products

9.1. Products falling within Chapter 30 obtained in a Party by using cell cultures, shall be considered as originating in that Party. 'Cell culture' is defined as the cultivation of human, animal and plant cells under controlled conditions (such as defined temperatures, growth medium, gas mixture, pH) outside a living organism.

9.2. Products falling within Chapters 29 (except for: 2905.43-2905.44), 30, 32, 33 (except for: 3302.10, 3301), 34, 35 (except for: 35.01, 3502.11-3502.19, 3502.20, 35.05), 36, 37, 38 (except for: 3809.10, 38.23, 3824.60, 38.26) and 39 (except for: 39.16-39.26) obtained in a Party by fermentation shall be considered as originating in that Party. 'Fermentation' is a biotechnological process in which human, animal, plant cells, bacteria, yeasts, fungi or enzymes are used to produce products falling within Chapters 29 to 39.

9.3. The following processing operations are considered sufficient according to paragraph 1 of Article 4 for products falling within Chapters 28, 29 (except for: 2905.43-2905.44), 30, 32, 33 (except for: 3302.10, 3301), 34, 35 (except for: 35.01, 3502.11-3502.19, 3502.20, 35.05), 36, 37, 38 (except for: 3809.10, 38.23, 3824.60, 38.26) and 39 (except for: 39.16-39.26):

- Chemical reaction: A 'chemical reaction' is a process (including a biochemical process) which results in a molecule with a new structure by breaking intramolecular bonds and by forming new intramolecular bonds, or by altering the spatial arrangement of atoms in a molecule. A chemical reaction may be expressed by a change of the 'CAS number'.

The following processes should not be considered for purposes of origin: (a) dissolving in water or other solvents; (b) the elimination of solvents, including solvent water; or (c) the addition or elimination of water of crystallization. A chemical reaction as defined above is to be considered as origin conferring.

- Mixtures and Blends: The deliberate and proportionally controlled mixing or blending (including dispersing) of materials, other than the addition of diluents, to conform to predetermined specifications which results in the production of a good having physical or chemical characteristics which are relevant to the purposes or uses of the good and are different from the input materials is to be considered to be as origin conferring.

- Purification: Purification is to be considered as origin conferring provided that purification occurring in the territory of one or several of the Parties results in one of the following criteria being satisfied:
 - (a) purification of a good resulting in the elimination of at least 80 % of the content of existing impurities; or
 - (b) the reduction or elimination of impurities resulting in a good suitable for one or more of the following applications:
 - (i) pharmaceutical, medicinal, cosmetic, veterinary, or food grade substances;
 - (ii) chemical products and reagents for analytical, diagnostic or laboratory uses;
 - (iii) elements and components for use in micro-electronics;
 - (iv) specialised optical uses;
 - (v) biotechnical use (e.g., in cell culturing, in genetic technology, or as a catalyst);
 - (vi) carriers used in a separation process; or
 - (vii) nuclear grade uses.
- Change in particle size: The deliberate and controlled modification in particle size of a good, other than by merely crushing or pressing, resulting in a good having a defined particle size, defined particle size distribution or defined surface area which is relevant to the purposes of the resulting good and having different physical or chemical characteristics from the input materials is to be considered as origin conferring.
- Standard materials: Standard materials (including standard solutions) are preparations suitable for analytical, calibrating or referencing uses having precise degrees of purity or proportions which are certified by the manufacturer. The production of standard materials is to be considered as origin conferring.
- Isomer separation: The isolation or separation of isomers from a mixture of isomers is to be considered as origin conferring.

ANNEX VI

SUPPLIER'S DECLARATION

The supplier's declaration, the text of which is provided below, must be made out in accordance with the footnotes. However, the footnotes do not have to be reproduced.

SUPPLIER'S DECLARATION

for goods which have undergone working or processing in applying Contracting Parties without having obtained preferential origin status

I, the undersigned, supplier of the goods covered by the annexed document, declare that:

1. The following materials which do not originate in [indicate the name of the relevant applying Contracting Party(ies)] have been used in [indicate the name of the relevant applying Contracting Party(ies)] to produce these goods:

Description of the goods supplied ⁽¹⁾	Description of non-originating materials used	Heading of non-originating materials used ⁽²⁾	Value of non-originating materials used ⁽²⁾⁽³⁾
Total value

2. All the other materials used in [indicate the name of the relevant applying Contracting Party(ies)] to produce those goods originate in [indicate the name of the relevant applying Contracting Party(ies)];

3. The following goods have undergone working or processing outside [indicate the name of the relevant applying Contracting Party(ies)] in accordance with Article 13 of this Appendix and have acquired the following total added value there:

Description of the goods supplied	Total added value acquired outside [indicate the name of the relevant applying Contracting Party(ies)] ⁽⁴⁾
	(Place and date)
	(Address and signature of the supplier; in addition the name of the person signing the declaration has to be indicated in clear script)

- (1) When the invoice, delivery note or other commercial document to which the declaration is annexed relates to different kinds of goods, or to goods which do not incorporate non-originating materials to the same extent, the supplier must clearly differentiate them.
Example:
The document relates to different models of electric motor of heading 8501 to be used in the manufacture of washing machines of heading 8450. The nature and value of the non-originating materials used in the manufacture of those motors differ from one model to another. The models must therefore be differentiated in the first column and the indications in the other columns must be provided separately for each of the models to make it possible for the manufacturer of washing machines to make a correct assessment of the originating status of his products depending on which model of electrical motor he uses.
- (2) The indications requested in those columns should only be given if they are necessary.
Examples:
The rule for garments of ex Chapter 62 says Weaving combined with making-up including cutting of fabric may be used. If a manufacturer of such garments in an applying Contracting Party uses fabric imported from the European Union which has been obtained there by weaving non-originating yarn, it is sufficient for the European Union supplier to describe in his declaration the non-originating material used as yarn, without it being necessary to indicate the heading and value of such yarn.
A producer of iron of heading 7217 who has produced it from non-originating iron bars should indicate in the second column 'bars of iron'. Where this wire is to be used in the production of a machine, for which the rule contains a limitation for all non-originating materials used to a certain percentage value, it is necessary to indicate in the third column the value of non-originating bars.

- (3) 'Value of materials' means the customs value at the time of importation of the non-originating materials used, or, if this is not known and cannot be ascertained, the first ascertainable price paid for the materials in [indicate the name of the relevant applying Contracting Party(ies)].
The exact value for each non-originating material used must be given per unit of the goods specified in the first column.
- (4) 'Total added value' shall mean all costs accumulated outside [indicate the name of the relevant applying Contracting Party(ies)], including the value of all materials added there. The exact total added value acquired outside [indicate the name of the relevant applying Contracting Party(ies)] must be given per unit of the goods specified in the first column.

ANNEX VII

COMMITMENTS OF NORWAY ON GOODS ORIGINATING IN THE REPUBLIC OF MOLDOVA

ANNEX IV

REFERRED TO IN ARTICLE 2.2

SCHEDULE OF TARIFF COMMITMENTS ON GOODS

COMMITMENTS OF NORWAY ON GOODS ORIGINATING IN THE REPUBLIC OF MOLDOVA

The following terms and conditions apply to the tariff commitments granted by Norway to the Republic of Moldova in accordance with this Annex:

- (a) For goods originating in the Republic of Moldova referred to as “NAMA” (Non-Agricultural Products) in column 3, Norway shall eliminate all import duties and charges having equivalent effect to import duties, as set out in column 4a or 4b.
- (b) For goods originating in the Republic of Moldova referred to as “BAP” (Basic Agricultural Products) in column 3, Norway shall apply import duties as set out in columns 4a or 4b.
- (c) For goods originating in the Republic of Moldova referred to as “PAP” (Processed Agricultural Products) in column 3, the following provisions apply:
 - (i) In order to take account of differences in the cost of the agricultural raw materials, the duty, levied upon import, shall be based on, but not exceed, the differences between the domestic price in Norway and the world market price of the agricultural raw materials incorporated into the goods concerned.
 - (ii) Subject to the provisions in subparagraph (i), Norway shall accord for goods referred to as PAP in column 3 of the table, originating in the Republic of Moldova, the same treatment as given to the European Union (EU). The commitments set out in the table for PAP are the same concessions as granted to the EU as of 1 January 2021. If the commitments for these goods are changed in the agreement between Norway and the EU, the Republic of Moldova will simultaneously get identical commitments.
 - (iii) Norway shall publish the applicable import duties for processed agricultural products on the Website of the EFTA Secretariat.
- (d) For goods referred to as “NC” (not covered) in columns 4a or 4b, no commitments related to import duties are granted by Norway.
- (e) Norway shall, based on an end-use criteria, accord duty-free market access to fish feed and raw materials for making fish feed, originating in the Republic of Moldova.

- (f) The classification of goods shall be that set out in the tariff nomenclature of Norway in conformity with the Harmonized Commodity Description and Coding System (HS 2022).

TRADE FACILITATION

ANNEX VI

REFERRED TO IN ARTICLE 2.13

TRADE FACILITATION

ARTICLE 1

General Principles

1. The Parties, aiming to serve the interests of their respective business communities and to create a trading environment allowing them to benefit from the opportunities offered by the Agreement, agree that in particular the following principles are the basis for the development and administration of trade facilitation measures by their competent authorities:

- (a) transparency, efficiency, simplification, harmonisation and consistency of trade procedures;
- (b) consistent, impartial, predictable and reasonable administration of international law and domestic laws, regulations and administrative decisions relevant to international trade in goods;
- (c) promotion of international standards;
- (d) consistency with multilateral instruments;
- (e) best possible use of information technology;
- (f) high standards of public service;
- (g) governmental controls based on risk management;
- (h) cooperation within each Party among customs and other border authorities; and
- (i) consultations between the Parties and their respective business communities.

2. Nothing in this Annex shall be construed as to diminish the rights and obligations of the Parties under Articles 2.11 (Technical Regulations) and 2.12 (Sanitary and Phytosanitary Measures) of the Agreement.

ARTICLE 2

WTO Agreement on Trade Facilitation

For the purposes of Chapter 2 (Trade in Goods), the WTO Agreement on Trade Facilitation applies and is hereby incorporated into and made part of the Agreement, mutatis mutandis. In addition, the measures provided for in this Annex shall apply.

ARTICLE 3

Transparency

1. Each Party shall promptly make available, as far as practicable in English, on the internet:
 - (a) all domestic laws and regulations, administrative decisions of general application and procedures relevant to trade in goods; and
 - (b) a description of its trade procedures that informs interested parties of the practical steps needed to trade or transit goods, including contact information on enquiry points.
2. Each Party shall establish enquiry points for customs and other matters relevant to trade in goods, which may be contacted in English through the internet. Enquiries in English shall be answered in English. The Parties shall not require any fee for answering enquiries.

ARTICLE 4

Public Consultation and Information Before Entry into Force

1. Each Party shall consult its business community on its needs with regard to the development and implementation of trade facilitation measures, giving particular attention to the interests of small and medium-sized enterprises.
2. Each Party shall publish in advance, and on the internet, any proposed domestic laws and regulations relevant to international trade in goods, with a view to affording interested persons an opportunity to comment on them.
3. Each Party shall ensure that a reasonable time period is provided between the publication of domestic laws and regulations relevant to international trade in goods and their entry into force.
4. Paragraphs 1 to 3 shall not apply to:
 - (a) measures having a relieving effect;
 - (b) measures, the effectiveness of which would be undermined as a result of compliance with paragraphs 1 to 3;
 - (c) measures applied in urgent circumstances; and
 - (d) minor changes to domestic laws and regulations.

ARTICLE 5

Advance Rulings

1. Each Party shall, prior to the importation or exportation of a product, in a reasonable time bound manner, issue a written advance ruling to an importer, exporter, or any person with a justifiable cause, or a representative thereof, who has submitted a written request containing all necessary information. The advance ruling shall be issued with regard to:

- (a) tariff classification and the applied rate of duty of a product, including the method used to calculate the amount of duties;

1. “Reasonable and non-discriminatory terms and conditions” means, for the purposes of multimodal transport operations, the ability of the multimodal transport operator to arrange for the conveyance of its merchandise on a timely basis, including priority over other merchandise which has entered the port at a later date.
2. “Multimodal transport operator” means the person on whose behalf the bill of lading/multimodal transport document, or any other document evidencing a contract of multimodal carriage of goods, is issued and who is responsible for the carriage of goods pursuant to the contract of carriage.
3. “Cabotage” means maritime transport of goods and passengers between ports in Iceland.
4. “Other forms of commercial presence for the supply of international maritime transport services” means the ability for international maritime transport service suppliers of the other Members to undertake locally all activities, which are necessary for the supply to their customers of a partially or fully integrated transport service, within which the maritime transport constitutes a substantial element. (This commitment shall however not be construed as limiting in any manner the commitments undertaken under the cross-border mode of delivery).

These activities include, but are not limited to:

- (a) marketing and sales of maritime transport and related services through direct contact with customers, from quotation to invoicing, these services being those operated or offered by the service supplier itself or by service suppliers with which the service seller has established standing business arrangements;
- (b) the acquisition, on their own account or on behalf of their customers (and the resale to their customers) of any transport and related services, including inward transport services by any mode, particularly inland waterways, road and rail, necessary for the supply of the integrated service;
- (c) the preparation of documentation concerning transport documents, customs documents, or other documents related to the origin and character of the goods transported;
- (d) the provision of business information by any means, including computerised information systems and electronic data interchange (subject to the provisions of the annex on telecommunications);
- (e) the setting of any business arrangements (including participation in the stock of a company) and the appointment of personnel recruited locally (or, in the case of foreign personnel, subject to the horizontal commitment on movement of personnel) with any locally established shipping agency;

(f) acting on behalf of the companies, organising the call of the ship or taking over cargoes when required.

5. “Maritime cargo handling services” means activities exercised by stevedore companies, including terminal operators, but not including the direct activities of dockers, when this workforce is organized independently of the stevedoring or terminal operator companies. The activities covered include the organisation and supervision of: - the loading/discharging of cargo to/from a ship; - the lashing/unlashing of cargo; - the reception/delivery and safekeeping of cargoes before shipment or after discharge.

6. “Customs clearance services” (alternatively “customs house brokers’ services”) means activities consisting in carrying out on behalf of another party customs formalities concerning import, export or through transport of cargoes, whether this service is the main activity of the service provider or a usual complement of its main activity.

7. “Container station and depot services” means activities consisting in storing containers, whether in port areas or inland, with a view to their stuffing/stripping, repairing, and making them available for shipments.

8. “Maritime agency services” means activities consisting in representing, within a given geographic area, as an agent the business interests of one or more shipping lines of shipping companies, for the following purposes: - marketing and sales of maritime transport and related services, from quotation to invoicing, and issuance of bills of lading on behalf of the companies; acquisition and resale of the necessary related services, preparation of documentation, and provision of business information; - acting on behalf of the companies organising the call of the ship or taking over cargoes when required.

9. “Freight forwarding services” means the activity consisting of organising and monitoring shipment operations on behalf of shippers, through the acquisition of transport and related services, preparation of documentation and provision of business information.

10. “Other supporting and auxiliary transport services” means freight brokerage services; bill auditing and freight rate information services; transportation document preparation services; packing and crating and unpacking and de-crating services; freight inspection, weighing and sampling services; and freight receiving and acceptance services (including local pick-up and delivery).

ATTACHMENT I

UNDERSTANDING ON THE SCOPE OF COVERAGE OF CPC 84 - COMPUTER AND RELATED SERVICES

1. CPC 84 covers all computer and related services.
2. Technological developments have led to the increased offering of these services as a bundle or package of related services that can include some or all of the basic functions listed in paragraph 3. For example, services such as web or domain hosting, data mining services and grid computing each consist of a combination of basic computer services functions.
3. Computer and related services, regardless of whether they are delivered via a network, including the Internet, include all services that provide any of the following or any combination thereof:
 - (a) consulting, adaptation, strategy, analysis, planning, specification, design, development, installation, implementation, integration, testing, debugging, updating, support, technical assistance, or management of or for computers or computer systems;
 - (b) consulting, strategy, analysis, planning, specification, design, development, installation, implementation, integration, testing, debugging, updating, adaptation, maintenance, support, technical assistance, management or use of or for software;⁷
 - (c) data processing, data storage, data hosting or database services;
 - (d) maintenance and repair services for office machinery and equipment, including computers; and
 - (e) training services for staff of clients, related to software, computers or computer systems, and not elsewhere classified.
4. In many cases, computer and related services enable the provision of other services⁸ by both electronic and other means. However, in such cases, there is an important distinction between the computer and related service (e.g. web-hosting or application hosting) and the other service² enabled by the computer and related service. The other service, regardless of whether it is enabled by a computer and related service, is not covered by CPC 84.

⁷ The term “software” may be defined as the sets of instructions required to make computers work and communicate. A number of different programmes may be developed for specific applications (application software), and the customer may have a choice of using ready-made programmes off the shelf (packaged software), developing specific programmes for particular requirements (customized software) or using a combination of the two.

⁸ E.g. W/120.1.A.b. (accounting, auditing and bookkeeping services), W/120.1.A.d. (architectural services), W/120.1.A.h. (medical and dental services), W/120.2.D (audiovisual services), W/120.5 (educational services).

1. "Reasonable and non-discriminatory terms and conditions" means, for the purpose of multimodal transport operations, the ability of the multimodal transport operator to arrange for the conveyance of its merchandise on a timely basis, including priority over other merchandise which has entered the port at a later date. A "multimodal transport operator" means the person on whose behalf the bill of lading/multimodal transport document, or any other document evidencing a contract of multimodal carriage of goods, is issued and who is responsible for the carriage of goods pursuant to the contract of carriage.

2. "Domestic transport" is defined as maritime transport of goods and passengers between ports in Norway, including locations on the continental shelf where petroleum is explored or produced.

3. "Other forms of commercial presence for the supply of international maritime transport services" means the ability for international maritime transport service suppliers of the other members to undertake locally all activities which are necessary for the supply to their customers of a partially or fully integrated transport service, within which the maritime transport constitutes a substantial element. This commitment shall however not be construed as limiting in any manner the commitments undertaken under the cross-border mode of delivery.

These activities include, but are not limited to:

- (a) marketing and sales of maritime transport and related services through direct contact with customers, from quotation to invoicing, these services being those operated or offered by the service supplier itself or by service suppliers with which the service seller has established standing business arrangements;
- (b) the acquisition, on their own account or on behalf of their customers (and the resale to their customers) of any transport and related services, including inward transport services by any mode, particularly inland waterways, road and rail, necessary for the supply of the integrated service;
- (c) the preparation of documentation concerning transport documents, customs documents, or other documents related to the origin and character of the goods transported;
- (d) the provision of business information by any means, including computerized information systems and electronic data interchange (subject to the provisions of Annex XI (Telecommunications Services));
- (e) the setting of any business arrangements (including participation in the stock of a company) and the appointment of personnel recruited locally (or, in the case of foreign personnel, subject to the horizontal commitment on movement of personnel) with any locally established shipping agency;

- (f) acting on behalf of the companies, organising the call of the ship or taking over cargoes when required.

4. “Maritime cargo handling services” means activities exercised by stevedore companies, including terminal operators, but not including the direct activities of dockers, when this workforce is organised independently of the stevedoring or terminal operator companies. The activities covered include the organisation and supervision of:

- (a) the loading/discharging of cargo to/from a ship;
- (b) the lashing/unlashing of cargo;
- (c) the reception/delivery and safekeeping of cargoes before shipment or after discharge.

5. “Customs clearance services” (alternatively “customs house brokers’ services”) means activities consisting in carrying out on behalf of another party customs formalities concerning import, export or through transport of cargoes, whether this service is the main activity of the service provider or a usual complement of its main activity.

6. “Container station and depot services” means activities consisting in storing containers, whether in a port area or inland, with a view to their stuffing/stripping, repairing, and making them available for shipments.

7. “Maritime agency services” means the activities consisting in representing, within a given geographic area, as an agent the business interests of one or more shipping lines or shipping companies, for the following purposes:

- (a) marketing and sales of maritime transport and related services, from quotation to invoicing, and issuance of bills of lading on behalf of the companies; acquisition and resale of the necessary related services, preparation of documentation, and provision of business information;
- (b) acting on behalf of the companies organising the call of the ship or taking over cargoes when required.

8. “Freight forwarding services” means the activity consisting of organising and monitoring shipment operations on behalf of shippers, through the acquisition of transport and related services, preparation of documentation and provision of business information.

9. “Other supporting and auxiliary transport services” means freight brokerage services; bill auditing and freight rate information services; transportation document preparation services; packing and crating and unpacking and de-crating services; freight inspection, weighing and sampling services; and freight receiving and acceptance services (including local pick-up and delivery).

1. The Parties reaffirm their sovereign rights over their natural resources. Considering the close and traditional dependence of subsistence farmers, indigenous Peoples and local communities embodying traditional lifestyles on genetic resources, the Parties also recognise their respective rights and obligations as established by the Convention on Biological Diversity, the Nagoya Protocol on Access to Genetic Resources

2. The Parties shall endeavour to implement the international agreements in the area of intellectual property related to genetic resources and associated traditional knowledge in a mutually supportive manner with the international agreements referred to in paragraph 1.

SECTION II
STANDARDS CONCERNING THE AVAILABILITY, SCOPE AND USE OF
INTELLECTUAL PROPERTY RIGHTS

ARTICLE 4

Copyright and Related Rights

1. The Parties shall, without prejudice to the obligations set out in the international agreements to which they are parties, in accordance with their domestic laws and regulations, grant and ensure adequate and effective protection to the authors of works and to performers, producers of phonograms and videograms and broadcasting organisations for their works, performances, phonograms, videograms and broadcasts, respectively.
2. In addition to the protection provided for in the international agreements to which the Parties are parties or which the Parties shall ratify or accede to pursuant to paragraph 2 of Article 2 (International Conventions), each Party shall grant and ensure protection for producers of videograms by applying articles 11, 12, 13 and 14 of the WPPT, mutatis mutandis.
3. The Parties shall ensure that a broadcasting organisation has at least the exclusive right of authorising the following acts: the rebroadcasting of their broadcasts, the fixation of their broadcasts, the reproduction and distribution of fixations, and the communication to the public, by wire or wireless means, including the retransmission and the making available to the public of their fixed broadcasts in such a way that members of the public may access these broadcasts from a place and at a time individually chosen by them.
4. The Parties may, in their domestic laws and regulations, provide for the same kinds of limitations and exceptions with regard to the protection of producers of videograms and to broadcasting organisations as they provide for, in their domestic laws and regulations, in connection with the protection of copyright in literary and artistic works.
5. The term of protection to be granted to producers of videograms under the Agreement shall last at least until the end of a period of 50 years computed from the end of the year in which the videogram was published, or failing such publication within 50 years fixation of the videogram, 50 years from the end of the year in which the fixation was made.
6. The term of protection to be granted to broadcasting organisations under the Agreement shall last at least until the end of a period of 20 years computed from the end of the year in which the broadcast took place.

ARTICLE 5

Trademarks

1. The Parties shall grant adequate and effective protection of trademarks for goods and services. Any sign, or any combination of signs, capable of distinguishing the goods or services of one undertaking from those of other undertakings, shall be capable of constituting a trademark. Such signs, in particular words including combinations of words, personal names, letters, numerals, figurative elements, shapes of goods, sounds and combinations of colours as well as any combination of such signs, shall be eligible for registration as trademarks. Where signs are not inherently capable of distinguishing the relevant goods or services, the Parties may make registrability depend on distinctiveness acquired through use. The Parties may require, as a condition of registration, that trademarks are capable of being represented on the register in a manner which enables the competent authorities and the public to determine the clear and precise subject matter of the protection afforded to its proprietor.

2. The Parties shall grant the owner of a registered trademark the exclusive right to prevent all third parties not having the owner's consent from using in the course of trade identical or similar signs for goods or services which are identical or similar to those in respect of which the trademark is registered where such use would result in a likelihood of confusion. In case of the use of an identical sign for identical goods or services, a likelihood of confusion shall be presumed. The rights described above shall not prejudice any existing prior rights, nor shall they affect the possibility of Parties making rights available on the basis of use.

3. Protection according to paragraph 2 shall not be limited to identical or similar goods or services where the trade mark is well known in the relevant country and where the use of the trade mark without due cause would be detrimental to the distinctive character or take unfair advantage or be detrimental to its repute.

4. No Party may require as a condition for determining that a trademark is well-known that the trademark has been registered in that Party or in another jurisdiction, included on a list of well-known trademarks, or given prior recognition as a well-known trademark.

5. The Parties reaffirm the importance of, and shall be guided by the principles contained in, the WIPO Joint Recommendation Concerning Provisions on the Protection of Well-Known Marks, adopted by the Assembly of the Paris Union for the Protection of Industrial Property and the General Assembly of the WIPO in 1999, and the WIPO Joint Recommendation Concerning Provisions on the Protection of Marks and other Industrial Property Rights in Signs, on the Internet, adopted by the Assembly of the Paris Union for the Protection of Industrial Property and the General Assembly of the WIPO in 2001.

6. Where a trademark is reproduced in a dictionary, other reference work or in a similar work, in print or electronic form, without mention of the fact that it is registered, the Parties shall provide the legal means for the owner of the trademark to require from the publisher of the work that a corresponding note be included, in case of printed form at the latest in a reprint.

ARTICLE 6

Patents

1. The Parties shall at least ensure in their domestic laws and regulations that patents are available for any inventions, whether products or processes, in all fields of technology, provided that they are new, involve an inventive step and are capable of industrial application. Subject to paragraphs 3 and 4, patents shall be available and patent rights enjoyable without discrimination as to the place of invention, the field of technology and whether products are imported or locally produced. Importation and offering on the market of a product shall be deemed to be “working of the patent” in the country of importation.
2. Subject to paragraphs 3 and 4, and consistent with paragraph 1, the Parties shall ensure that patents are available for inventions claimed as new uses of a known product and new methods or processes of using a known product. A Party may limit those new uses, methods and processes to those that do not claim the use of the product as such.
3. The Parties may exclude from patentability inventions, the prevention within their territory of the commercial exploitation of which is necessary to protect ordre public or morality, including to protect human, animal or plant life or health or to avoid serious prejudice to the environment, provided that such exclusion is not made merely because the exploitation is prohibited by their domestic laws and regulations.
4. Each Party may also exclude from patentability:
 - (a) any invention of methods for treatment of the human or animal body by surgery or therapy or for diagnostic methods practised on the human or animal body; this paragraph shall not apply to products, in particular substances or compositions, for use in any of these methods; and
 - (b) plant or animal varieties or essentially biological processes for the production of plants or animals and plants or animals exclusively obtained by means of an essentially biological process; this paragraph shall not apply to microbiological processes or the products thereof.
5. The Parties shall provide a patent applicant with opportunities to make amendments, corrections, and observations in connection with its application.
6. Recognising the benefits of transparency in the patent system, the Parties shall endeavour to publish unpublished pending patent applications promptly after the expiration of 18 months from the filing date or, if priority is claimed, from the priority date.
7. If a pending patent application is not published promptly in accordance with paragraph 6, the Parties shall publish such application or the corresponding patent as soon as practicable.
8. The Parties shall provide that a patent applicant may request the early publication of an application prior to the expiration of the period mentioned in paragraph 6.

9. Each Party may adopt or maintain an exception for patents related to acts necessary for obtaining marketing authorisation for a pharmaceutical product (regulatory review exception). The exception shall not unreasonably conflict with a normal exploitation of the patent and shall not unreasonably prejudice the legitimate interests of the patent owner, taking into account the legitimate interest of third parties.

10. The Parties shall foresee a compensatory term of protection for pharmaceuticals and plant protection products, which shall be calculated from the expiry of the maximum term of patent of 20 years for a period equal to the period which elapsed between the filing date of the patent application and the date of the market authorisation of the product, reduced by a period of five years. Such compensatory protection shall cover a period of five years at the most² and shall be granted under the following conditions:

- (a) the product is protected by a patent in force;
- (b) there has been an official marketing authorisation for the medicinal or plant protection product;
- (c) the right conferred by the patent has been postponed by administrative procedures regarding authorisation of market access, so that the effective use of the patent amounts to less than 15 years; and
- (d) the effective protection conferred by the patent and the compensatory protection shall together not exceed 15 years.³

ARTICLE 7

Undisclosed Information

1. The Parties, when requiring, as a condition of approving the marketing of pharmaceutical or plant protection and biocidal products which utilise chemical or biological entities, the submission of undisclosed test or other data, the origination of which involves a considerable effort, shall protect such data against unfair commercial use. In addition, the Parties shall protect such data against disclosure, except where necessary to protect the public, or unless steps are taken to ensure that the data are protected from unfair commercial use.

2. The Parties shall prevent applicants for marketing approval from relying on, or referring to, undisclosed test data or other data submitted to the competent authority by the first applicant for a period, counted from the date of marketing approval in the Party where marketing approval is sought, of at least five years for pharmaceutical products and at least 10 years for plant protection and biocidal products. In addition, for pharmaceutical products, the Parties shall ensure that no pharmaceutical product relying on, or referring to, undisclosed test data or other data submitted to the competent authority by the first applicant is placed on the market until seven years have elapsed, counted from the date of the first marketing approval in the Party where marketing approval is sought.

² For pharmaceuticals that have been tested for paediatric use, a six-month extension of the compensatory term of protection shall be granted, subject to the requirements and conditions set out in the applicable domestic laws and regulations of a Party.

3. The seven-year period regarding pharmaceutical products referred to in paragraph 2 shall be extended to a minimum of eight years if, at least during the first five years after obtaining the initial marketing authorisation, the marketing authorisation holder obtains an authorisation for one or more new therapeutic indications which, during the scientific evaluation prior to their authorisation, are held to bring a significant clinical benefit in comparison with existing therapies.

4. The Parties may permit reliance on or reference to such data in order to avoid unnecessary duplication of tests of plant protection and biocidal products involving vertebrate animals, provided that the first applicant is adequately compensated.

ARTICLE 8

Industrial Designs

The Parties shall ensure in their domestic laws and regulations adequate and effective protection of industrial designs by providing in particular a period of protection of at least 25 years in total. The Parties may provide for a shorter period of protection for designs of component parts used for the purpose of the repair of a product.

ARTICLE 9

Geographical Indications

1. The Parties shall ensure in their domestic laws and regulations adequate and effective means to protect geographical indications with regard to all goods.

2. For the purposes of this Annex, “geographical indications” mean indications which identify a good as originating in the territory of a Party, or a region or locality in that territory, where a given quality, reputation or other characteristic of the good is essentially attributable to its geographical origin.

3. Without prejudice to Article 23 of the TRIPS Agreement, the Parties shall provide legal means for interested parties to prevent the use of a geographical indication for goods not originating in the place indicated by the designation in question in a manner which misleads the public as to the geographical origin of those goods or which constitutes an act of unfair competition within the meaning of Article 10*bis* of the Paris Convention.

4. The Parties shall provide legal means for interested parties to oppose the registration or to request the invalidation of a trademark which contains or consists of a geographical indication of a Party with respect to goods not originating in the territory indicated, if such use misleads the public as to the true place of origin of the goods.

5. The Parties shall provide legal means for interested parties to prevent the use of a geographical indication for agricultural products and foodstuffs for identical or comparable goods not originating in the place indicated by the designation in question.

6. Without prejudice to this Article, the Appendix (Mutual Recognition and Protection of Geographical Indications, Appellations of Origin and Indications of Source) applies to the mutual recognition and protection of geographical indications of Switzerland, Liechtenstein and the Republic of Moldova.

ARTICLE 10

Indications of Source and Country Names

1. The Parties shall ensure in their domestic laws and regulations adequate and effective means to protect indications of source, names, armorial bearings and flags of countries, with regard to all goods and services.

2. For the purposes of this Annex, “indications of source” means direct or indirect references to the geographical origin of goods or services.

3. The Parties shall provide legal means for interested parties to prevent the use of an indication of source for goods not originating in the place indicated by the designation in question, inter alia where such indication is used as a trademark, trade name or company name, in a manner which misleads the public as to the geographical origin of those goods or which constitutes an act of unfair competition within the meaning of Article 10*bis* of the Paris Convention.

4. The Parties shall provide legal means for interested parties to prevent the use of an indication of source for services, inter alia where such indication is used as a trademark, trade name or company name, in a manner which misleads the public as to the geographical origin or constitutes an act of unfair competition within the meaning of Article 10*bis* of the Paris Convention.

5. The Parties shall provide legal means for interested parties to prevent any incorrect or misleading use or registration of country names of a Party or of its territory names, as trademarks or as any other protected title, such as company names or names of associations.

6. The provision of the paragraph 3 above applies even if the geographical name is translated or used in a modified form if such use misleads the public as to the true place of origin of the goods.

7. The Parties, in accordance with their obligations under Article 6*ter* of the Paris Convention, shall prevent that armorial bearings, flags and other State emblems of a Party are used or registered as trademarks, designs or other protected titles, such as company names or names of associations, in non-compliance with the conditions laid down in the domestic laws and regulations of that Party. This paragraph shall also apply to signs that may be confused with armorial bearings, flags and other State emblems of a Party.

8. Without prejudice to this Article, the Appendix (Mutual Recognition and Protection of Geographical Indications, Appellations of Origin and Indications of Source) applies to the mutual recognition and protection of the indications of sources of Switzerland, Liechtenstein and the Republic of Moldova.

SECTION III

ACQUISITION AND MAINTENANCE OF INTELLECTUAL PROPERTY RIGHTS

ARTICLE 11

Acquisition and Maintenance

Where the acquisition of an intellectual property right is subject to the right being granted or registered, the Parties shall ensure that the procedures for granting or registration are at least the same level as that provided in the TRIPS Agreement, in particular Article 62.

SECTION IV

ENFORCEMENT OF INTELLECTUAL PROPERTY RIGHTS

ARTICLE 12

General

The Parties shall provide in their domestic laws and regulations for enforcement provisions for rights covered by Article 1 (Definition of Intellectual Property) that shall at least be the same level as provided for in the TRIPS Agreement, in particular in Articles 41 to 61.

ARTICLE 13

Suspension of Release

1. The Parties shall adopt procedures to enable a right holder, who has valid grounds for suspecting that importation or exportation of goods infringing intellectual property rights may take place, to lodge an application in writing with the competent authorities, administrative or judicial, for the suspension by the customs authorities of the release of such goods.
2. The Parties shall also adopt procedures with respect to goods for import or export, under which a right holder can record intellectual property rights with the customs authorities. The customs authorities shall carry out appropriate controls in order to identify goods suspected of infringing those recorded intellectual property rights.
3. The customs authorities shall, in accordance with domestic procedures, suspend the release of the goods suspected of infringing intellectual property rights for which an application was filed as per the procedure under paragraph 1 or which were recorded as per the procedure under paragraph 2.
4. The Parties shall enable their competent authorities to act upon their own initiative and suspend the release of goods when they have valid grounds for suspecting that importation or exportation of those goods would infringe intellectual property rights.
5. The customs authorities shall be active in targeting and identifying shipments containing import and export goods suspected of infringing an intellectual property right.
6. The Parties shall authorise their customs authorities to inform the right holder in order to enable the lodging of an application according to paragraph 1 and the recording according to paragraph 2.
7. It is understood that there shall be no obligation to apply procedures set forth in paragraphs 1 and 2 to the suspension of the release of goods put on the market by or with the consent of the right holder.

8. In case of suspension pursuant to paragraphs 1 and 2 with respect to importation into or exportation from the customs territory of a Party, the competent authorities of the Party suspending the release of the goods shall notify the right holder of the suspension including necessary information to enforce his or her rights, such as the name and addresses of the consignor or consignee, and the importer or exporter, as applicable, and the quantity of the goods in question.

9. Each Party shall ensure that the competent administrative or judicial authorities, upon request by the right holder, have the authority to decide that the products, the release of which has been suspended pursuant to paragraphs 1 or 2, shall be held seized until a final decision is reached in the infringement dispute.

10. Each Party shall provide that if the competent authorities have made a determination that the suspected goods infringe an intellectual property right, procedures are made available to enable the right holder to seek recovery of, and indemnify against, costs and expenses that the right holder may have incurred in connection with the exercise of rights and remedies provided in this Article.

11. Each Party may exclude from the application of the above provisions small quantities of goods contained in travellers' personal luggage or sent in small consignments, provided that such small consignments do not amount to import or export on a commercial scale.

ARTICLE 14

Right of Inspection

1. The competent authorities shall provide the applicant for the suspension of goods referred to in Article 13 (Suspension of Release) and other persons involved in the suspension with the opportunity to inspect goods whose release has been suspended.

2. When examining goods, the competent authorities may take samples and, in accordance with the domestic laws and regulations of the Party concerned, hand them over or send them to the right holder, at his or her express request, strictly for the purposes of analysis and of facilitating the subsequent procedure. Where circumstances allow, samples must be returned on completion of the technical analysis and, where applicable, before goods are released or their detention is lifted. Any analysis of these samples shall be carried out under the sole responsibility of the right holder.

3. The declarant, holder or owner of the suspected infringing goods may be present at the inspection with a view to protecting its trade secrets.

ARTICLE 15

Provisional Measures and Injunctions

1. Each Party shall ensure that its judicial authorities have the authority to order prompt and effective provisional measures:

- (a) to prevent infringements of intellectual property rights from occurring, and in particular to prevent the entry of goods into channels of commerce in their jurisdiction, including imported goods immediately after customs clearance; and
- (b) to preserve relevant evidence with regard to the alleged infringement.

2. The Parties' judicial authorities shall have the authority to adopt provisional measures inaudita altera parte where appropriate, in particular where delay is likely to cause irreparable harm to the right holder, or where there is a demonstrable risk of evidence being destroyed. Upon request for provisional measures, the Parties' judicial authorities shall act expeditiously and take a decision without undue delay.

3. Each Party shall ensure that, in civil judicial proceedings with regard to the enforcement of intellectual property rights, its judicial authorities have the authority to order a party to the proceedings to desist from an infringement, inter alia, to prevent the entry into the channels of commerce in their jurisdiction of imported goods that involve the infringement of an intellectual property right, immediately after customs clearance of such goods.

ARTICLE 16

Removal from Commerce

The Parties shall ensure that the competent judicial authorities in an infringement dispute may order, upon request of the right holder, that appropriate measures be taken with regard to goods that they have found to be infringing an intellectual property right and, in appropriate cases, with regard to materials and implements predominantly used in the creation or manufacture of those goods. Such measures shall include definitive removal from the channels of commerce or destruction. In considering a request for corrective measures, the need for proportionality between the seriousness of the infringement and the remedies ordered as well as the interests of third parties shall be taken into account.

ARTICLE 17

Civil Remedies

1. Each Party shall make available to right holders civil judicial procedures concerning the enforcement of any intellectual property right covered in this Annex.
2. Each Party shall ensure that:
 - (a) in civil judicial proceedings, its judicial authorities have the authority to order the infringer, who knowingly or with reasonable grounds to know engaged in infringing activity of intellectual property rights, to pay the right holder damages adequate to compensate for the actual injury the right holder has suffered as a result of the infringement; and

- (b) in determining the amount of damages for intellectual property rights infringement, its judicial authorities shall consider, inter alia, the actual damage, lost profits, any profits made by the infringer or establishing a fair licence fee.

3. At least in cases of copyright or related right infringement and trademark counterfeiting, each Party shall provide that its judicial authorities have the authority to order the infringer to pay the right holder the infringer's profits that are attributable to the infringement.

ARTICLE 18

Criminal Remedies

The Parties shall provide for criminal procedures and penalties for wilful intellectual property rights infringements on a commercial scale.

ARTICLE 19

Security or Equivalent Assurance

The Parties shall ensure that their competent authorities have the authority to require an applicant, in justified cases, to provide a security or equivalent assurance, sufficient to protect the defendant and the competent authorities and to prevent abuse. Such security or equivalent assurance shall not unreasonably deter recourse to these procedures. The Parties may fulfil this obligation by requiring an applicant to declare to accept liability towards the persons involved, instead of providing a security or equivalent assurance.

ARTICLE 20

Final Judicial and Administrative Decisions

The Parties shall ensure that final judicial and administrative decisions relating to intellectual property rights are:

- (a) in writing and contain the findings of fact and the reasoning or the legal basis on which the decisions are based; and
- (b) published or otherwise made publicly available in a national language in such a manner as to enable interested parties to become acquainted with them, subject to protection of confidential information.

ARTICLE 21

Cooperation in the Field of Intellectual Property

 - (b) the armorial bearings, flags, and other State emblems of Switzerland and Liechtenstein pursuant to Article 6^{ter} of the Paris Convention;
 - (c) the geographical indications of Switzerland and Liechtenstein listed in Attachment II to this Appendix.

ARTICLE 3

Extent of Protection

1. Without prejudice to Articles 22 and 23 of the TRIPS Agreement, the Parties shall take all the necessary measures in accordance with this Appendix to ensure mutual protection of the protected indications referred to in Article 2 (Protected Indications). Each Party shall provide interested parties, as referred to in Article 6 (Beneficiaries), with the legal means to prevent the use of such indications in any of the situations listed in this Article.
- (a) Without prejudice to Article 10 of the Paris Convention, the indications listed in Attachment I to this Appendix and armorial bearings, flags, and other State emblems² referred to in subparagraphs 1(b) and 2(b) of Article 2 (Protected Indications) shall be protected against:
 - (i) any direct or indirect commercial use in respect of goods not originating in the designated country³ or region or not complying with the requirements set according to the domestic laws and regulations of the Party to which the indication refers;
 - (ii) any direct or indirect commercial use in respect of services in a manner not complying with the requirements set according to the domestic laws and regulations of the Party to which the indication refers.
 - (b) The geographical indications listed in Attachment II to this Appendix and other geographical indications of the Parties as defined in paragraph 1 of Article 22 of the TRIPS Agreement shall be protected against:

² Armorial bearings are reserved for official use, without prejudice to exceptions foreseen by domestic laws and regulations.

³ The relevant territory for the use of a Swiss indication of source for natural products and foodstuffs, as defined in Switzerland's domestic laws and regulations, includes the Principality of Liechtenstein, the customs enclave of Büsingen am Hochrhein; the relevant territory for the use of a Swiss indication of source for natural products, as defined in Switzerland's domestic laws and regulation, includes the free trade zones of Pays de Gex and Haute-Savoie and plots exploited by Swiss farmers within the border zone.

- (i) any direct or indirect commercial use in respect of goods of the same kind as those to which the geographical indication applies, not originating in the geographical area of origin or not complying with the requirements set according to the domestic laws and regulations of the Party to which the indication refers;
- (ii) any direct or indirect commercial use in respect of goods that are not of the same kind as those to which the geographical indication applies or services, if such use would indicate or suggest a connection between those goods or services and the beneficiaries of the geographical indication, and would be likely to damage their interests, or, where applicable, in light of the reputation of the geographical indication in the Party concerned, such use would be likely to impair or dilute in an unfair manner, or take unfair advantage of, that reputation;
- (iii) any other practice liable to mislead consumers as to the true origin, provenance or nature of the goods.

2. The protection afforded by paragraph 1 shall also apply in the following situations, even if the true origin of the goods or services is indicated:

- (a) the protected indication is used in translation, transcription or transliteration; or
- (b) the protected indication is used in a modified form, if such use would result in a risk of confusion for the relevant public; or
- (c) the protected indication is accompanied by terms such as “style”, “kind”, “type”, “make”, “imitation”, “method”, “as produced in”, “like”, “similar” or the like, including graphical symbols which may lead to confusion, as well as when the designated good is used as an ingredient.

3. The protection afforded by paragraphs 1 and 2 shall also apply in cases of importation of goods into the territory of a Party, as well as where goods originating in the territory of a Party are exported. The Parties shall enable their competent authorities to act upon their own initiative, which may also cover transit issues.

4. The registration of trademarks infringing paragraphs 1 or 2 shall be refused or invalidated ex officio if the domestic laws and regulations of the Parties so permits or at the request of an interested party. If such trademark has been applied for or registered in good faith or has been established by use in good faith before the entry into force of the Agreement, it may continue to be used and renewed notwithstanding the protection and the use of the indication of source or geographical indication under this Appendix, provided that no other grounds for the invalidity of the trademark or its revocation exist as specified by the domestic laws and regulations of the Party concerned.

5. The Parties shall have no obligation to protect an indication referred to in Article 2 (Protected Indications) where:

- (a) in light of a reputed or well-known trademark, protection is liable to mislead consumers as to the true identity of the good or service. This provision shall not apply to indications referred to in subparagraphs 1(a) and 2(a) of Article 2 (Protected Indications);

- (b) in the light of the name of a plant variety or an animal breed, protection is liable to mislead consumers as to the true origin of the good.

6. For protected indications referred to in subparagraphs 1(a), 1(c), 2(a) and 2(c) of Article 2 (Protected Indications), the exceptions of paragraphs 4, 6 and 7 of Article 24 of the TRIPS Agreement shall not apply.

ARTICLE 4

Homonymous Indications

1. Where a protected indication of a Party is identical with or similar to a protected indication of another Party, protection shall be accorded to each indication, provided that the protected indication has been used traditionally and consistently and that the good or the service is not falsely represented as originating in the territory of another Party;

2. Where a protected indication of a Party is identical with or similar to an indication referring to the territory of a third party, the latter indication may be used to describe and present a good produced in the geographical area to which it refers or a service originating in the country to which it refers, provided that the indication in question has been used traditionally and consistently, that its use for this purpose is regulated in the country of origin, and that the good or the service it identifies is not falsely represented as originating in the territory of the Party concerned.

3. In cases referred to in paragraph 1, the Parties shall determine the practical conditions under which the homonymous indications in question will be differentiated from each other, taking into account the need to ensure equitable treatment of the producers of goods or the providers of services concerned and that the consumers are not misled.

ARTICLE 5

Exceptions

1. The provisions of this Appendix shall in no way prejudice the right of any person to use, in the course of trade, their own name or the name of their predecessor in business, provided that such name is not used in a way that misleads consumers as to the true origin of the goods and services.

2. Nothing in this Appendix shall oblige any Party to protect an indication of another Party which ceases to be protected in its country of origin or which has fallen into disuse in that country. The Parties shall notify each other if the protection of an indication has ended in its country of origin.

ARTICLE 6

Beneficiaries

The beneficiaries of the protection granted by this Appendix shall include natural and legal persons, including federations, associations and organisations of producers, providers of services, traders or consumers, as well as state authorities. These beneficiaries shall be deemed to be interested parties, provided that they have a legitimate interest and that their residence or head office is located in the territory of a Party. The Parties shall ensure that the protection granted by this Appendix is enforceable by interested parties under their domestic laws and regulations.

ARTICLE 7

Presentation and Labelling

If the description, presentation or packaging of a good or a service, including in the labelling, in advertising, or in official or commercial documents, is in breach of this Appendix, the Parties shall apply the necessary administrative measures and shall provide for effective legal means with a view to combating unfair competition or preventing the incorrect or misleading use of the protected indication in any other way.

ARTICLE 8

Contact Points

1. The authorities designated in Attachment III to this Appendix shall act as contact points between the Parties with the purpose of monitoring the implementation of this Appendix and intensifying the Parties' cooperation and dialogue on indications of source and geographical indications. These contact points shall report issues relating to the interpretation and application of this Appendix to the Joint Committee.
2. The Parties shall exchange information on their legislative and policy developments concerning indications of source and geographical indications and any other matter of mutual interest in these areas, including for the purpose of considering the protection of indications of source and geographical indications in accordance with this Appendix.
3. The contact points shall meet, upon request of a Party, at a time and place and in a manner, including by videoconference, mutually agreed by the Parties concerned, and endeavour to do so within 90 days from the request.

ARTICLE 9

1. If a Party has reason to suspect that:
 - (a) a protected indication as defined in Article 2 (Protected Indications) is being or has been used in trade between Parties or between a Party and a third country in non-compliance with this Appendix; and
 - (b) this non-compliance is of particular interest to the Party concerned and could result in administrative measures or legal proceedings being taken, the Party concerned shall immediately inform the contact points of the other Parties and provide relevant information concerning such non-compliant use.

2. The information to be provided in accordance with paragraph 1 shall be accompanied by official, commercial or other appropriate documents and specify any administrative measures or legal proceedings that may be taken. The information shall include, in particular, the following details concerning the good or the service in question:

- (a) the producer and any person holding the good, or the provider of the service;
- (b) the composition of that good or the content of that service;
- (c) the description, presentation and/or packaging of that good or service; and
- (d) the description of the suspected non-compliance with the applicable rules:
 - (i) on the production of that good or on the provision of that service; or
 - (ii) on the marketing of that good or service.

3. The Party receiving the information shall examine the matter and inform the other Parties on the outcome of the examination and any measure taken in accordance with Article 3 (Extent of Protection) or legal means available under the domestic laws and regulations to prevent such non-compliant use.

ARTICLE 10

National Registers and Lists

1. Without prejudice to the provisions of paragraph 5 of Article 3 (Extent of Protection), the registration or addition of an indication in the national registers and lists of a Party as mentioned in Attachment IV to this Appendix but not yet included in Attachment II to this Appendix shall be admitted by the relevant authorities of the other Parties as evidence that this indication falls under the definition of a geographical indication as set out in paragraph 2 of Article 1 (Coverage).

2. This provision shall apply as long as the indication in question has not been examined by another Party according to paragraph 1 of Article 11 (Modifications to the List of Geographical Indications).

ARTICLE 11

Modification to the Lists of Geographical Indications

1. A Party intending to add new geographical indications for protection, in Attachment II to this Appendix, shall notify the other Parties in writing via the contact points referred to in paragraph 1 of Article 8 (Contact Points). Within 90 days from the receipt of such written notification, and after having completed an objection procedure in accordance with the criteria set out in Attachment V to this Appendix, the Parties shall enter into consultations with the aim of finding an agreement on the proposed modification. They shall report the result of their consultations to the Joint Committee to amend the Attachment.

2. If a geographical indication listed in Attachment II to this Appendix ceases to be protected in its territory of origin, the respective Party shall notify these changes to the other Parties through the contact points and report them to the Joint Committee to amend this Appendix.

ARTICLE 12

2. Goods produced, designated and presented or services designated and presented in accordance with this Appendix, whose description, presentation and/or packaging cease to conform to this Appendix following an amendment thereto, may continue to be marketed until stocks are exhausted unless otherwise agreed by the Parties.
